

LEGION ESSAY HONORS GO TO CHS SENIORS

Gettysburg High School seniors made a clean sweep of top honors in the annual Adams County American Legion Essay contest, taking first place in both the essay and scholarship examination divisions of the competition.

Jon Wagnild, son of Prof. and Mrs. Parker B. Wagnild, Gettysburg R. 2, won first prize of $20 in cash and an opportunity to enter his essay in the state competition for a scholarship.

Anne Eckert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark A. Eckert, Springs Ave., is the winner of an examination given March 12 to pupils whose essays reached the final judging. Her first honors entitle her to a state senatorial scholarship.

The essay theme this year was "How Concerned About the Welfare of Others Both in the United States and in Other Countries, Should a Good Citizen Be?"

Local Runners-up
Runners-up for essay honors also were from Gettysburg High School. They were: Second, Anne Eckert, who will receive a prize of $15; Mary Brent, who will get $10, and Shirley Fox, who will receive $5. All contestants will be presented with certificates.

Miss Eckert has applied for admission to Mary Washington College at Fredericksburg, Va., and probably will not accept the scholarship which is usable only in Pennsylvania universities.

Ranking second in the results of the scholarship examination is David Higinbotham of New Oxford High School and Donna Wicker of Gettysburg High School was third. Miss Eckert has until June 1 to decide whether she will use the scholarship. If she declines it, it will be offered to Higinbotham and then to Miss Wicker if the New Oxford youth does not accept.

A committee of faculty members of Gettysburg College judged the essays on the basis of English structure, originality, accuracy, extent of information, evidence of research and evidence of ability to succeed in college.

The committee in charge included Lawrence M. Sheads, chairman, Robert E. Sheads Sr., Jacob M. Sheads and Eugene R. Hartman.

NAME WOMEN TO HELP WITH RUMMAGE SALE

Members of the committee from the Women's Auxiliary of the Warner Hospital in charge of the rummage sale to be held in the Hotel Gettysburg-pressroom March 29 and 30 were announced today by Mrs. Joseph S. Heiney as follows:

Mrs. Julius Swope, Mrs. Bruce N. Wolff, Mrs. Paul R. Roy, Mrs. William G. Weaver, Mrs. Clark Smith, Mrs. Charles Weaver, Mrs. Robert Codori, Mrs. W. E. Roth, Mrs. Edmund W. Thomas, Mrs. Edwin Minter, Mrs. Leroy H. Weinberger, Mrs. Clifford Naugle, Mrs. John D. Teeter, Mrs. Henrietta Blocher and Mrs. Charles Pittet.

The auxiliary annually conducts a rummage sale, with the cooperation of the local Rotary Club, for the benefit of the local hospital.

Mrs. Heiney said that members in the outlying districts of Littlestown, Emmitsburg, Biglerville, Taneytown, New Oxford and East Berlin may bring their rummage to the auxiliary meeting at the hospital next Monday afternoon instead of making a special trip. Their donations will be cared for until the sale opens Friday morning, March 29, at 8 o'clock.

Rummage may also be left at the YWCA, Mrs. Heiney said. "Approximately $400 was cleared at last year's sale," Mrs. Heiney added, "and we are hopeful of exceeding that amount this year."

Countian To Face Waynesboro Charge

Waynesboro police said H. Eugene Chronister of Gardners R. 1 ran through a red traffic signal at an intersection and collided with a southbound sedan driven by Elsie S. Peiffer, Waynesboro, Tuesday evening.

The left front fender, grill, hood and bumper of Chronister's sedan were damaged, as well as the right front fender, grill, hood and wheel of the Peiffer car.

Police said Chronister would be charged with a red light violation in the 5:55 p.m. collision.

POCKETBOOK FOUND
Borough police Wednesday afternoon reported finding a wallet owned by Sarah Bessie Rohrbach, containing $15, on Chambersburg St.

Driver Dozes And $1,600 Crash Follows

A parked and unoccupied station wagon owned by John M. Bollinger, Gettysburg R. 2, was demolished when it was struck by a truck in the 600 block of York St. Wednesday afternoon at 1:45 o'clock.

Borough police, who estimated damage to the Bollinger vehicle at $800, said it was parked opposite the Gettysburg Motors Garage when Vernon R. Farrow, Chambersburg, driving a truck owned by William R. Hartman, Chambersburg R. 5, fell asleep while going west, and the truck smashed into the parked station wagon. Damage to the truck was estimated at $800. Farrow was uninjured.

17 STUDENTS INDUCTED INTO HONOR GROUP

Seventeen Gettysburg High School students were inducted into the National Honor Society at a program held at the senior high school here Wednesday afternoon. The induction was followed by a tea for the students and their parents.

Guile W. Lefever, high school principal, presented the students with their certificates and outlined the "nature of the honor society requirements." The students were formally inducted by Miss Helen Barley, a student at Gettysburg College, who was a member of the high school honor society last year.

Eugene Meade, one of the students inducted, and president of the society, presided at the program. The roll call was made by Sally Smith, secretary, and one of the inductees.

Program Is Presented
Those inducted into the society, selection to which is made on the basis of a vote of the faculty on students who have shown outstanding scholastic, service, and leadership attainments, included: Mary Bowmaster, Ann Eckert, Shirley Fox, Ronald Hankey, John Hewettson, Gene Hoak, Paul Jones, Carolyn Ketterman, Susan Korte, Joan Lank, Eugene Meade, Mary Ann Rider, Sally Smith, Donna Spence, Jon Wagnild, Donna Wicker and Barbara Wilson.

Songs were sung by a quartet including Sally Smith, Donna Wicker, Susan Korte and Carolyn Ketterman, accompanied by Shirley Fox. Jon Wagnild presented a piano solo.

The tea was arranged by Miss Susan K. Wentz and Miss Jean M. McAnally of the faculty. Miss Ruth McMillen and Miss Gertrude Little poured. The committee in charge include Robert Fidler, Mrs. Ruth Joseph and Jacob M. Sheads.

Youth Is Injured In Morning Crash

Donald E. Rohrbach, 17, Fairfield R. 2, suffered contusions of the right chest, right thigh and upper lip when two cars collided this morning at 6:45 o'clock in Freedom Twp. between the Emmitsburg and Fairfield Rds.

Rohrbach, who was treated by Dr. Ira Henderson at Fairfield and then at the Warner Hospital, was a passenger in a car operated by Charles Rohrbach, 29, Fairfield R. 2, when it and a car driven by Raymond F. Redding, 29, Gettysburg R. 2, collided at the intersection. Damage was $125 to the Redding car and $250 to the Rohrbach auto, according to state police.

FILE ESTATE BOND

An administration bond in the $545 estate of John H. Carter, late of Gettysburg, has been filed by the administratrix, the widow, Helen M. Carter, 115 Breckenridge St., with the county register and recorder.

Mahlon A. Hartley, Staunton, Va., is spending several days with his sister, Mrs. W. E. Roth, Carlisle St.

Twins Survive Four Months After Operation For Their Separation; Joined At Head

WASHINGTON (AP)—Government scientists have told of a possibly historic operation in which they separated twin baby girls who had been joined at the forehead.

The House Appropriations Committee, which made public the story today, was told this was "the first operation of this kind in which, at least until the present time, both twins have survived."

Dr. Pearce Bailey, director of the National Institute of Neurological Diseases and Blindness, gave the account of the intricate operation performed last December on Virginia Kate and Teresa Kay Bunton of Mountain City, Tenn. The twins then were 4 months old.

In "Good Health"
Today, a little over three months after the operation, the twins were reported in "good health." They still are at the clinical center of the National Institutes of Health in nearby Bethesda, Md., where the surgery was performed.

There have been a number of cases where Siamese twins, joined at the head, were separated only to have at least one of the twins die. One of the most famous of these cases involved the Brodie twins of Chicago. Rodney Dee Brodie survived, but Roger Lee, his twin brother, died after 34 days.

FOUR OFFICERS ARE ELECTED BY AAUW BRANCH

Mrs. G. Donald Wickerham, 32 N. Howard Ave., was elected first vice president of the Gettysburg Branch of the American Association of University Women at a meeting of the branch Wednesday evening at the Student Christian Association building on the college campus.

She succeeds Mrs. Harold A. Dunkelberger to the post. Mrs. Robert Barnes was elected second vice president succeeding Mrs. W. R. Schubart. Mrs. John W. Breann Jr. was renamed as secretary and Mrs. Howard Long was elected member at large. All of the elections were for two-year terms.

At its business meeting, the AAUW went on record as seconding the endorsement of Miss Margaret McMillan, Baltimore St., for many years Red Cross secretary here, and pioneer in social work in the county, as a candidate for the Distinguished Daughter of Pennsylvania award this year. Miss McMillan had previously been nominated for the honor by the Women's Club here.

Back Mrs. Jones
Endorsement was also given to the candidacy of Mrs. Jane Rice Jones for nomination as a candidate for school board.

Mrs. Edwin J. Killalea presented three readings, two from Shakespeare and one from Phyllis McGinley, as part of the program presented by the Literature and Art Appreciation study groups of the AAUW. For her Shakespeare readings Mrs. Killalea chose selections from the parts of "Katharine Aragon" from King Henry 8 and "Kate" from "Taming of the Shrew."

A motion picture on the work of the sculptor Bourdelle, who was a pupil of Rodin, was shown.

The president, Mrs. Franklin R. Bigham, presided. Hostesses were Mrs. George Forney, Mrs. C. William Harbaugh, Mrs. Roy H. Hammond, Miss Sue Ella Harper and Mrs. D. E. Horst.

BEGIN SERIES OF SERVICES

A series of six evangelistic services will open Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Mt. Carmel EUB Church and will continue each evening at 7:30 through March 29. It was announced today by the pastor, the Rev. Roger Burtner.

Three guest ministers will speak during the series and special music will be provided each evening.

The schedule for the services follows:
Sunday, sermon, "God's Word," by the Rev. Mr. Burtner with special music by the Clavolines, an instrumental group; Monday, sermon by the Rev. Marlin Lauver, pastor of the Mt. Tabor EUB Church, and music by the Mt. Carmel Junior Choir; Tuesday, sermon by the Rev. Harry Fehl Jr., pastor of Memorial EUB Church, Gettysburg, and music by Mrs. Ida Naugle, Ottantana; Wednesday, sermon, "God's Name," by the Rev. Mr. Burtner, and music by Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wetzel, McKnightstown; Thursday, sermon, "God's Price," by the Rev. Mr. Burtner and music by the Ottantana EUB Charge Youth Fellowship; Friday, sermon by the Rev. Dr. Russell Oyer, Hanover, and music by the Mt. Carmel Church Choir.

SEEKS YORK PASTOR
The Rev. Quentin P. Garman, Pacific Beach, San Diego, Cal., a candidate for the pastorate of Christ Lutheran Church, York, delivered a trial sermon at the church Wednesday evening. He is a graduate of Gettysburg College in 1941 and the Lutheran Seminary in 1944. His wife is the former Miss Jeannette R. Spangler, Gettysburg. They have four children.

Reservations must be completed no later than April 10. The group from this area will travel by bus, leaving Saturday morning, April 20, at 5:30 a.m. from Columbia, from York at 6 a.m. and from Gettysburg at 7:15 a.m.

The Knights Templar will attend the formal dedication of the Knights Templar chapel in the George Washington Masonic National Memorial in Alexandria, Saturday afternoon. Their overnight reservations have been made at the Ambassador Hotel. On Easter morning breakfast will be held Sunday at the Washington Hotel following the sunrise service. Buses will leave Washington at 1:30 p.m.

REC BOARD TO MEET

The Gettysburg Recreation Association board of directors will meet Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the engine house, Secretary M. P. Hartzell Sr. announced today.

CHOIR GIVES CONCERT

The 35-voice choir of the Lutheran Theological seminary presented a concert of sacred music Wednesday evening at the Evangelical Lutheran Church, Waynesboro.

371 Given Salk Shots Wednesday

Three hundred seventy-one children received Salk vaccine shots Wednesday during a clinic conducted at the York Springs fire hall for school children of that community. The shots were given by Dr. William Flickinger of York Springs.

Assisting were Mrs. Evelyn Topper, school nurse; Mrs. Violet Raffensperger and Miss Mildred Eden, state nurses; Mrs. Louise Morelock, East Berlin school nurse; Mrs. Emma Crist, Gettysburg; Mrs. Catherine Drake and Mrs. John Breighner, York Springs registered nurses.

The inoculations were completed in one hour and 10 minutes.

MANY DISABLED FOLKS FAIL TO SEEK BENEFITS

People who have become unable to work because of severe and long-lasting disabilities have a new type of protection under the social security law, but according to the Bureau of Old-Age and Survivors Insurance, which administers the new provisions, many are not applying for their rights.

For many disabled people, failure to file an application with the Chambersburg office before the end of June will mean the loss of all their social security disability protection, and for some it will also mean the loss of their rights to any old-age and survivors insurance for themselves and their families in the future. Should a disabled worker die without having filed an application to protect his social security disability rights, the survivors' benefits payable to his family under the social security law may be greatly reduced.

Monthly Benefits
The bureau said that an estimated 700,000 severely disabled men and women in the country have worked long enough under social security to be eligible to have their social security records frozen under a 1954 provision in the law. When a disabled worker's record is frozen, the years when his disability keeps

Pre-School Clinic At York Springs May 7

The Rev. Amos D. Meyers, administrator of the schools of the North Adams Joint School District, has announced a pre-school clinic for testing and registering children in that jointure who will be entering the first grade next fall. The clinic will be held Tuesday, May 7, in the First Grade room of the York Springs Elementary school building.

Beginners from Huntington and Latimore townships and from York Springs borough should attend the clinic, the schoolman said.

KT TO ATTEND DAWN SERVICE

The 27th Annual Arlington Easter Sunrise Memorial Service, held under the auspices of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the United States of America, will draw Knights Templar and their ladies from all parts of the country to the Amphitheater of Arlington National Cemetery Easter Sunday morning at 7:30 o'clock.

Among those attending will be representing the commanderies of Division 16, Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Pennsylvania in Columbia, York, Hanover and Gettysburg, Richard S. Cole and Titus Snyder, both of Gettysburg Commandery 75, are chairman and co-chairman. They head a committee of ten, with two representatives from each commandery in Division 16. The representatives of Gettysburg Commandery 79 are Howard Kitzmiller and Dr. Harold Dunkelberger.

Reservations must be completed no later than April 10. The group from this area will travel by bus, leaving Saturday morning, April 20, at 5:30 a.m. from Columbia, from York at 6 a.m. and from Gettysburg at 7:15 a.m.

The Knights Templar will attend the formal dedication of the Knights Templar chapel in the George Washington Masonic National Memorial in Alexandria, Saturday afternoon. Their overnight reservations have been made at the Ambassador Hotel. On Easter morning breakfast will be held Sunday at the Washington Hotel following the sunrise service. Buses will leave Washington at 1:30 p.m.

REC BOARD TO MEET

The Gettysburg Recreation Association board of directors will meet Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the engine house, Secretary M. P. Hartzell Sr. announced today.

CHOIR GIVES CONCERT

The 35-voice choir of the Lutheran Theological seminary presented a concert of sacred music Wednesday evening at the Evangelical Lutheran Church, Waynesboro.

When Howard E. Simpson, president of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, toured the Gettysburg Battlefield last winter he was impressed by the statue dedicated to the 143rd Pennsylvania. He made it a point to learn the dramatic story behind the figure carved in stone on that memorial.

Last month Mr. Simpson was invited to address the New York Traffic Club of some 2,400 members. He chose as his topic: "Bring The Regiment Back To The Colors."

In addressing the club Mr. Simpson reminisced a bit about the time he spent in New York and then said:

"As I talked of 'the old days' with my old friends, it seemed that the New York of the early twenties is like a vast mechanical piece which we can, by some happy magic of memory, set going again at will; set the good, roofless Fifth Avenue buses rolling again once more — the Sixth Avenue 'L' rattling by. Caruso can be made to sing — as no one ever sang before — in the Metropolitan Opera House; and up on Columbus Circle George Arliss, monadic agleam, still enraptures his 'Green Goddess' audience; and a short block away, is a vacant lot beside the old YMCA, Jack Dempsey starts his training for his fight with a Frenchman we called 'Carpenter'."

"It was the day of Flo Ziegfeld, Marilyn Miller, Victor Herbert, John Philip Sousa, George M. Cohan; the day of John 'Muggsy' McGraw and a young Babe Ruth. (Incidentally, these two renowned athletes started their baseball careers with the famous old Orioles of Baltimore.) It was the day of Sandy Hook steamers, cigar store Indians, hand organs, hat pins, souvenir spoons; and the day when times sharply under the score the contrast between those days and these — times whose very names make strong men sob in their cups — tunes like these: The Sidewalks of New York, There'll Be A Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight, The

E. J. TAYLOR, 78, DIES SUDDENLY

Edward J. Taylor, 78, died at the home of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn E. Taylor, Bendersville, Wednesday evening at 5:45 o'clock of a heart attack.

Mr. Taylor had suffered a first attack at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and his physician, Dr. P. J. McGlynn, was summoned. He was apparently recovering from the first heart attack when he suffered a second which caused the death.

A son of the late Solomon J. and Ellen (Hoke) Taylor, he was a native of Adams County and had resided for the last 40 years in Bendersville. He was a member of the Bethlehem Lutheran Church, Bendersville, and of the Men's Bible Class of that church, and was also a member of the Bendersville Fire Co.

His wife, the former Mary Routsong, died in 1940. Survivors include two sons, Carl O. Taylor and Glenn E. Taylor, both of Bendersville; four grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. Nora Warren, Arendtsville.

Funeral services Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Dugan Funeral Home, Bendersville, with his pastor, the Rev. Dr. O. D. Coble officiating. Interment in the Bendersville Cemetery. Friends may call Friday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock at the funeral home.

Salvation Army Drive Nears Close

Solicitors for the Salvation Army fund locally today entered the final week of their campaign with approximately one-half of their goal of $3414.58 secured.

G. Marion Stambaugh, general chairman, urged the solicitors to complete their campaign within the week, if possible, noting that in some instances late selection of canvassers caused some solicitors to "get a late start in the drive."

Stambaugh added that persons who have not been contacted but who wish to donate may send contributions to John Hewitt at the Gettysburg National Bank, treasurer of the Salvation Army account.

FIREMEN TO MEET

The quarterly meeting of the Adams County Firemen's Association will be held Monday, April 1, at 8 p.m. at the engine house, E. Middle St., with the Reaser Hose Co. as the host.

Mrs. Musselman Foundation Is Announced Here

A foundation, to be operated exclusively for charitable purposes, known as The Emma G. Musselman Foundation, has been established by Mrs. C. H. Musselman, R. 3, according to a recent announcement.

The new foundation, organized and operated for "religious, scientific, literary, educational, and other charitable purposes," will be administered by Mrs. L. Musselman.

MRS. E. G. MUSSELMAN man Arnold, John A. Hauser, and Atty. Franklin R. Bigham members of the Advisory Committee.

A similar fund, known as The Musselman Foundation, established by the late C. H. Musselman, has been in existence since 1942. The basic philosophy guiding The Musselman Foundation has been the disbursement of funds to cover needs in the area in which the three plants of The C. H. Musselman Company are located, Biglerville, Gardners and Inwood, West Va.

As the wife of the founder, Mrs. C. H. Musselman shared the responsibility and hard work of the growing company from the time of its inception in 1907 until the time of her husband's death in 1944. She participated actively in plant operations during the early years and is credited with much of the experimental work that led to present day procedures and processes.

A member of the board of directors, Mrs. Musselman is currently serving as a vice president of the company.

"Minstrel Parade" At Biglerville On Friday

The members of the Junior Dramatics Club and the Public Speaking Club of Biglerville High School will present a "Minstrel Parade" Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the Biglerville Elementary School auditorium.

The minstrel will be under the direction of Allen Clay, Mrs. C. William Settle and Charles L. Yost will be musical directors.

Characters will include "Mr. Bones" in search of a joke, Thomas Hoffman; "Mr. Tambo," an irresponsible comic, Jack Palmer; Harriet Beecher Stowe; author of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," Mary Griest; "Mandy Buckingham," searching for her hero, Marie Coble, and "Andy Doolittle," searching for love and money, Wayne Lochbaum.

In addition there will be a large cast of minor characters and a chorus to provide the musical background for the minstrel.

Middle East Has Top Priority In Ike-Macmillan Conference

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
TUCKER'S TOWN, Bermuda (AP)—President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Macmillan assigned top priority to the Middle East crisis, including Suez and Egyptian - Israeli problems, at the opening of their formal negotiations today.

The session opened in the drawing room of the Mid-Ocean Club, where chiefs of the two governments met with advisers at a circular conference table.

Real start of the top-level quest for full-scale restoration of the of the British - American partnership in world affairs began at a three-hour dinner last night, however, when the President and Prime Minister and secretaries of state reviewed world issues.

Second On List

As a result of that talk, the Middle East crisis was put first as a topic.

While no announcement was made, it seemed probable that second position for discussion would be Britain's plans for cutbacks in its worldwide military commitments.

American officials foresaw a possibility the United States may have to make new commitments of its own to keep the free world's military guard up.

Red Cross Drive Totals Hits $2,200

With many solicitors calling at Red Cross headquarters for additional supplies but withholding their canvass reports until they have completed their territories, the Red Cross fund campaign for $17,000 went over the $2,200 mark today, it was announced by Campaign Chairman Crosby N. Hartzell. The total at noon today was $2,201.74.

Additional donations made direct to the Red Cross headquarters included the following: Metropolitan Edison Company, $120; Knouse Foods Cooperative, $100; $15 from Bulletin and Bulletin from District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter; $10 each from Minter's Store, St. Luke's Ladies' Aid of Littlestown, Dr. and Mrs. P. J. McGlynn and Elmer J. Yoder.

COUNTY CHURCH FOLK TO MEET ON DRIVE PLANS

Church representatives from six county districts will meet tonight to set plans for raising $10,000, the Adams County goal in the Pennsylvania United Church Center Project.

Dr. W. E. Tilberg, general chairman of the project, said that more than 40 church leaders will gather to work out plans to contact over 75 churches in the county. Representatives of the Pennsylvania Council of Churches will be present to assist in interpreting the project and instructing the leaders in the approach to the churches. The meeting will be at the Gettysburg Church of the Brethren.

Rev. Robert Knechel, county church chairman, said that the leaders will be asked to "simply tell the story of what the churches in the state are doing together and invite the churches to participate on a proportionate share basis."

The Pennsylvania United Church Center, to be located along the Route 230 bypass just east of Harrisburg, will provide quarters for the state council of churches and the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association, operating as the state council of christian education.

Seeking $569,600

Dr. Tilberg said that there is "a growing conviction of the need for a representative structure at the very heart of the Commonwealth symbolizing the united witness of our evangelical Christian faith."

He said the center will contain, in addition to normal office facilities, conference rooms, mailing and service room and adequate parking space. This will be the "core" structure, he said.

Already denominational groups with state offices have indicated a desire to move out to the center. As more church agencies become a part of the center, additional facilities will be constructed consistent with the architectural plan.

The cost, including the purchase of the property, architectural plans, erection of the "core" structure and a nominal maintenance reserve fund is estimated at $569,600.

TO SEE CLUB FILMS

The postponed meeting of the Gettysburg Riding Club will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the engine house when plans for the June horse show will be made and Dr. Bruce N. Wolff will show movies of club activities including 150 feet of new film on the Riding Club.

SPRAINS ANKLE

Robert Powell, 28, Biglerville, was treated Tuesday at the Chambersburg Hospital for a sprain of the right ankle received when he fell on steps.

TO MESH PLANS

Diplomats said the President and Prime Minister, together with Secretary of State Dulles, Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and other officials, probably would hold two meetings daily through Saturday.

The two government chiefs in statements made on their arrival yesterday both expressed confidence their Bermuda meeting would result in a strengthening of British-American cooperation in world affairs.

Britain Must Retrench

Their advisers agreed privately that this hope can be realized only if the two men can arrive at agreements or better understandings on some very tough and very practical problems.

4 CIVIL SUITS WILL BE TRIED HERE IN APRIL

Four civil suits are scheduled for the April term of court, according to the list prepared today by Prothonotary Herbert W. Miller. The April term will begin April 22.

The suits include an action in trespass brought by Carl C. and Florence S. Ray, Gettysburg R. 4, against Dayton Mason, also of Gettysburg R. 4, with Attorney Daniel E. Teeter representing Mason and the law firm of Bulletin and Bulletin representing Mr. and Mrs. Ray. The suit results from an automobile accident occurring at 7:45 p.m., October 5, 1956, one mile north of here on the Gettysburg-Harrisburg Rd. Mr. and Mrs. Ray are seeking $416.65 damage to their car and loss of use of the car after the collision. According to their claim, Mason drove his vehicle from a private driveway into the path of the Ray car.

One Continued Case
Aidronack Sporting Goods, Inc., Dolgeville, N. Y., is suing W. L. Hunt, Aspers, trading as Ranger Chemical Co. in an action in assumpsit in which the law firm of Bigham and Raffensperger represents Hunt and Attorney Eugene R. Hartman the New York concern. Aidronack Sporting Goods claims Ranger Chemical Co. owes it $1,797.43 for a bowling pins bill on which part payment has been made.

Also to be heard is a mechanics lien brought by Robert T. Group and Melvin O. Murtorf Jr., trading as Group and Murtorf, against Roland W. and A. Grace Granger, Biglerville R. D., Butler Twp. The contracting firm claims it is owed $1,393.51 for work on a one-story brick front frame house on the Biglerville-Heidlersburg Rd. owned by the Grangers. Attorney Daniel E. Teeter represents the Grangers and the law firm of Brown, Swope and MacPhail represents Group and Murtorf.

The fourth case is a continued one concerning an accident of a Aerol, Inc., New Oxford, truck in Hampton in which gasoline was spilled. Because part of the continued case has been recently settled, the final wording of the continued portion of the case has not as yet been determined.

C. E. RITTER IS
NEW PRESIDENT
ELECTED BY PTA

Members of the Littlestown Jointure Parent-Teacher Association elected Charles E. Ritter as their new president, at the March meeting held on Tuesday evening in the high school auditorium. The other newly elected officers are: First vice president, Mrs. Leonard Kershner; second vice president, Kenneth K. Kroh; secretary, Mrs. J. Leslie Yohn; treasurer, Ray T. Harner.

Miss LeOra L. Held, faculty advisor of the Future Teachers of America Club, introduced the members of the club, who were guests, and talked to the group assembled. The local PTA Chapter is named for Enoch Flower, in honor of the first rural public school teacher in Pennsylvania. Miss Held said: "Its purpose is to learn about teaching as a profession, opportunities, responsibilities and its important role in our democracy; to explore our own interests and abilities in relation to the various fields of teaching; to cultivate in ourselves the qualities of personality, characterization and leadership which are essential; to learn how and where teachers receive their training, the cost, scholarships available, number of years required, certification requirements and standards to study the lives and influence of great teachers." The club is limited to junior and senior students. Miss Held also explained the two scholarships to be awarded this year for the first time by the PTA, and how students should make application, if interested before May 1st.

Miss Mary Ann Burgoon, senior at the high school, sang two selections, "Give Us This Day" and "I Could Have Danced All Night," accompanied on the piano by Miss Barbara Swam. The program also included a film released by the National Education Association, "Mike Make His Mark." The opening invocation was offered by the Rev. Charles E. Held.

"ARE TRIES IN VAIN"

Sometimes I think my voice cries out . . . into the wilderness . . . for everywhere I go it seems . . . folks detour joy's caress . . . the world is still aglow with hate . . . I try to plant true brotherhood . . . what happens to the seed . . . I write of friendship's virtues . . . and yet the field of life . . . continues to put forth the weeds . . . that strangle us with strife . . . mankind is prone to wear a mask . . . say one thing, do another . . . I pray all nations will join hands . . . and live brother to brother . . . and if one kindly seed takes root . . . I'll strive to do my best . . . with tender words of hope and cheer . . . to help us pass the test.

president, presided and heard reports from Mrs. Yohn, secretary, and Mrs. Beaven F. Hanlon, treasurer. Paul A. Harner led the group singing and Mrs. Sarah Staub was pianist. The attendance award for the largest number of parents present, representing any one grade, went to the fifth grade taught by Mrs. Staub.

There was a discussion on the practicability of a supervised playground program for the summer months, which would come under the jurisdiction of the borough school board. It was generally felt that the best way to find out the wishes of the majority would be for interested persons to sign a petition and present it to the board, preferably specifying whether there should be a definite planned program or whether there should just be some supervision during certain hours of the day, so that the younger children could safely use the playground facilities.

Meet Next April 16

During the social hour, refreshments were served by Mrs. Earl L. Stites, Mrs. Charles W. Weikert, Mrs. John Burgoon, Mrs. Harry Herring and Mrs. Robert H. Thom. The March program chairman was Mrs. John A. Sentz.

Colleges Urged To Take Full Advantage Of Big Advertising
Campaign To Raise More Funds

NEW YORK, N. Y.—U. S. college and university presidents were told today by The Advertising Council to "make fund-raising hay while the advertising sun shines."

At a news conference here this morning, the council called on the chief executives of higher education to take advantage of a $2,000,000 nationwide advertising campaign in behalf of financial aid to higher education which it is launching in April. The campaign, a non-commercial public service venture, will be financed by American business, and conducted by The Advertising Council in cooperation with the Council for Financial Aid to Education.

Tell Public Of Needs

Its purpose will be to inform the American people of higher education's growing financial headaches, and to create a climate in which colleges and universities can more easily obtain desperately-needed funds from the public, alumni, business, labor and religious institutions.

Kenneth G. Patrick, manager of educational relations for General Electric Company, will serve as the campaign's volunteer coordinator. Mr. Patrick said that his own company has been running a Corporate Alumni Program for the past three years whereby it will match an employee's donation to his college on a dollar-for-dollar basis up to $1,000 in one year. GE's overall educational support totals $1.5 million a year.

Enrollments To Double

The need for financial help to colleges, not alone from business, but from all sources, was detailed at this morning's conference by Dr. Wilson Compton, president of the Council for Financial Aid to Education.

Dr. Compton said that full-time Acres Elementary School, when there will be installation of the newly elected officers and the program, with Mrs. Dale W. Stary as chairman, will be a symposium on "What For Next Year."

college enrollments are expected to double within ten years. At present, some 3 million students are enrolled in institutions of higher learning. Already college classrooms and laboratories are overcrowded, while faculty shortages are acute. Moreover, some professors are leaving the educational field for better paying positions in industry.

The annual costs of operating the colleges and universities now exceed $3 billion, said Dr. Compton. He revealed that during the past four years the amount of private gifts and grants to colleges has increased more than one-half, and amounts contributed directly by business corporations have more than doubled.

Need More Funds

"But this is not enough to meet the needs of the colleges," he said. Not enough to enable them to provide educational opportunities for the estimated six million students who within ten years will be knocking on their doors.

"At rock bottom the colleges and universities over the next ten years will need, in additional new funds from new sources or increased gifts from present sources, an average of $500 million annually."

That, he said, is less than the cost of a single super-carrier of the Forrestal type.

44 Pupils In Final Spelling Contest Today: The Adams county spelling contest winner is Kathryn Himes, of Latimore township state road school, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Himes. Her teacher is Miss Helen Hantz. She spelled 74 words correctly out of 80. Forty-four Adams county school children made perfect scores in the preliminary 100 word spelling contest this morning at Lincoln school building with 101 boys and girls competing.

Playlet Features Arendtsville Party: Members of the home economics club of the Arendtsville vocational school entertained their mothers at a party Friday evening in the school building.

A playlet, "Beans or Beefsteak," was presented by Mildred L. Taylor, Mary Leatherman, Jane Allison, Pauline Allison, Doris Taylor and Geraldine Baltzley.

Women To Help War On Cancer: A war against cancer, the disease that causes the second highest number of deaths in the United States yearly, was started today by three clubs comprising women of Gettysburg, Littlestown, and Biglerville as their part in the drive sponsored by the national and state federation of women's clubs.

Funds are being asked to provide money for research and education among American so that the dread disease — one that causes 150,000 deaths yearly, may be attacked in a thorough manner.

Named as chairman for the drive are Mrs. Chester Tyson for the Trinity Club of Biglerville; Miss Rose Barker for the Women's Community club of Littlestown and Mrs. Ralph Z. Oyer for the Gettysburg Mothers' Club.

High Students Please With 4 One-Act Plays: Gettysburg high school actors and actresses pleased an audience that nearly filled the school auditorium Friday evening by their presentation of four one-act plays.

The productions were sponsored by the Mask and Wig Dramatic Club of the high school.

The cast of the play, "The First Dress Suit," included Frederick Wentz, Jean Culp, Anna Catherine Hoffman and John Zinn. The second play was "Confessional" and the cast included Norma Bierer, Lucille Grimm, Ted Keefer, John Saby, Frances Crabill and Richard Eckert.

"The March Hair" had as its cast Robert Lefever, Robert Hand, Edna Mae Black, Richard Null, Doris Ann Day and Betty Frazee. Those in the final play "A Message From Khufu" were George Hanawalt, Ross Van Dyke, Bernard Stock and Oliver MacPherson.

Mother's Appeal And Money Launch "Mosquito War" Here: Announcement of the action of borough council at a special meeting Wednesday evening in turning thumbs down on an offer of WPA to help provide funds to eradicate the mosquito nuisance in Gettysburg and vicinity has brought a number of appeals to The Gettysburg Times to sound out public sentiment toward raising a public fund for a systematic campaign against the pest.

A prominent Gettysburg woman, mother of two small children, came to The Times office Friday and turned in a crisp $10 bank note to "start a fund." "Isn't there any way to raise money to drive the mosquitoes out of town?" this mother inquired of the editor. "I am sure that every mother in Gettysburg would contribute to her utmost to protect her children from diseases which we know mosquitoes carry."

More Than 500 Children Killed In Texas Blast: New London, Texas, March 19 (AP) — Horrors of the nation's worst school disaster mounted today as tangled wreckage of the London consolidated school yielded scores more of crushed bodies. The known dead reached hundreds.

Walter Elliott, Texas highway patrol captain, reported to his Austin headquarters that 500 bodies, including those of 17 teachers, had

Today's Talk

The great Dr. William Osler gave as "the master word" that small one — WORK. And he remarked: "Not only has it been the touchstone of progress, but it is the measure of success in every-day life."

When suddenly experiencing sorrow, disappointment or discouragement, work is the remedy to bring you back to a normal and happy state. Work, the cure-all! This word is what has inspired the great of this earth, our Pastors, Edisons, Harveys, Rodins and a host of others.

When lights about you go out — work on. When failure whispers to you, disregard it — work. It has been said of that great painter-etcher Alphonse Legros that as a young man he worked, as a grown man he worked, as a middle-aged man he worked — and as an old man he worked.

It is important to engage in the kind of work that interests you most. Then it is, as you improve, that work grows upon you and becomes a part of you. Happy is that one who meets his life work early.

Pay no attention to the easy jobs. There are plenty who can fill them. For the important and difficult jobs there is always a demand. The trained worker is the one most sought. High school and college graduates have an opportunity today that they have never had before.

I read in my newspaper page after page of vacant jobs, but where are the ones to fill them? What a prize a business house has in a good, and happy, worker! And those who take pride in their work are great leaders in industry tomorrow. There are cries for such workers all over the world today.

It's work that kills all fears and worries. It is a remedy like nothing else. All great workers are men and women of vision.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Readiness" Protected, 1957, by The George Matthews Adams Service

Just Folks

"I"

The pronoun I may mark the bore,
Too often used and sadly
frayed,
Than one who knows it counts
no more
When final count is being made.

By persons who employ it most
I, frequently, is apt to be
The preface to an idle boast
With which we may or not agree.

The pronoun I is worn and thin,
And needs from all of us a rest.
A word of cheer for those who win
May show the loser at his best.

Let's spare the pronouns I and me,
From pleasant speech let them
retire,
And in our conduct try to be
The sort of people friends admire.

We are at best a selfish lot,
But if we'd keep the common touch
And live our creeds, perhaps we'd not
Abuse the pronoun I so much.

HEIDI NICKEY, MRS. SHEELY CLUB GUESTS

Miss Heidi Nickey, 16-year-old student at the Littlestown High School, who is the present Pennsylvania Cherry Pie Baking Queen, and Mrs. Virginia Sheely, home economics instructor at the local high school, spoke at the Guest Night dinner meeting of the Littlestown Rotary Club on Tuesday evening at Schottie's Hotel.

Miss Nickey and Mrs. Sheely told about their trip to Chicago in February, in which the former participated in the national cherry pie bake-off, and related interesting facts concerning the national competition. In representing her state in the national bake-off, Miss Nickey was one of four regional winners in the finals, and as her award received a new electric range and $200 in cash.

Paul E. King, chairman of the program committee, introduced the speakers and presided for an auction which followed, at which time two cherry pies baked by Heidi were auctioned for the benefit of the school's student loan fund. Frank E. Basehor was the auctioneer, and the pies were bought by Clarence McHugh and A. W. Schott. Mr. McHugh was a visiting Rotarian from North East, Lancaster, and he also spoke briefly concerning the "On to Littlestown" Rotary convention to be held March 30 and 31 and April 1.

The opening invocation was given by Arthur E. Bair, L. Robert Snyder was song leader accompanied by Miss Donna Rabenstein. Herbert Smith, Red Lion, was also introduced as a visiting Rotarian. The classification committee, composed of Dr. Joseph R. Riden, chairman, Albert J. Bair, Edward T. Richardson, Mervin Harner and William V. Sneideringer, will be in charge of the program at the club meeting next Tuesday, 6:15 p.m., at Schottie's.

Special Services
Stations of the Cross and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will take place in St. Aloysius Catholic Church on Friday at 2:30 and 7:30 p.m.

A public party will be held in St. Aloysius Hall on Saturday night at 8 o'clock. There will be prizes and refreshments will be available. Conrad C. Hull is chairman of the committee on arrangements. Mrs. Regina Arter and Mrs. Lester Redding serve as co-chairmen of the refreshment committee.

The preparatory membership class of Centenary Methodist Church will meet each Sunday during the Sunday School hour, 9:30 a.m., with the supply pastor, the Rev. Dr. John Baxter Howes.

Reserved seat tickets for the Littlestown Lions Club TV Party are being sold rapidly. Over half of the reserved places have been sold and it is yet three weeks until the presentation. The TV Party will take place on Thursday night, April 25, in the local high school auditorium, when there will be take-offs from the popular television shows "Name That Tune," "Beat the Clock," "The Big Pay-off" and "Masquerade Party." The elevated seats in the auditorium are being reserved, and the seating chart is on display at Marvin's Cut Rate Store, S. Queen St. General admission tickets for the show will be distributed to the Lions at their meeting this evening, and may be secured from them.

List Coming Events
The Junior Fellowship of Centenary Methodist Church will meet tomorrow at 6:30 p.m. at the home of the adult counselor, Mrs. Chester S. Byers, E. Myrtle St.

A public party will be sponsored by the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Littlestown Aerie No. 2226 tomorrow evening, starting at 8 o'clock, at the F.O.E. Home, W. King St. There will be prizes and refreshments.

Members of the confirmation class of Redeemer's Church and their parents will leave from the church at 6:15 a.m. on Saturday morning, for Philadelphia. The group will visit the Heidelberg Press bookstore and tour the Schaff building. Miss Greta Hinkle, literature consultant, will conduct the tour through the offices of the board of Christian education and publication.

Women of Redeemer's Church are kindly requested to help move the dishes and other items back into the church kitchen, since the new tile has been completely installed on the floor. The work will be done tomorrow, and women are asked to go to the church after 1 p.m., and again after 6 p.m. The men of the church are asked to help move the heavy kitchen equipment in the evening.

Scores State's Coal Purchasing Method

HARRISBURG (P)—Rep. Norman Wood (R-Lancaster), chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, says the state's purchase of coal for heating is "one of the worst business operations" disclosed at budget hearings.

He said the state bought 25 per cent of its coal supplies last fall and the remainder in midwinter when prices were higher instead of purchasing a full year's supply at one time.

"The committee wants to know why the state is being put to this extra expense for heating its buildings," Wood's statement yesterday said.

DO NOT EXPECT COMPROMISE ON STATESALESTAX

HARRISBURG (P) — The House Republican leadership today ruled out any possibility of compromise on legislation to keep the 3 per cent sales tax from falling to 2 per cent June 1.

Speaker W. Stuart Helm and Rep. Albert W. Johnson, GOP floor leader, predicted the House will vote overwhelmingly Monday for the sales tax amendments as passed by the Senate Tuesday night.

"The Republican caucus will take it up on Monday but I don't anticipate any difficulty in concurring with the Senate amendments," Helm said in an interview.

The Republican-controlled Senate revised the sales tax measure to give new exemptions to manufacturers, public utilities and shipyards. They were attacked by Democrats as "a Republican giveaway."

Ready On Monday
Johnson said he expected the sales tax measure will be placed on Gov. Leader's desk Monday night.

"If anybody has any other ideas for amending the sales tax they will have to do it by separate legislation," he said. "I don't anticipate any more changes that would require the appointment of a conference committee."

The Senate postponed a vote on the bulk of a Republican "no-new-taxes" revenue package until next week but passed a measure to continue 14-mill gross receipts tax on public utilities for two more years.

The upper branch also passed and returned to the House for concurrence in amendments a measure to continue the 1 per cent real estate transfer tax for two more years.

Before the House and Senate adjourned yesterday, the House Appropriations Committee gave approval for a $100,000 legislative probe of the operations of the State Highways Department.

Mummasburg

MUMMASBURG — A surprise birthday party was held last Friday night in honor of Miss Barbara Ann Wilson at the home of Miss Sylvia Wieder, West Water St., Gettysburg. Those present were the Misses Shirley Patterson, Janet Hay, Pauline Wyatt, Maurine McFeaters, Neva Hartman, Betty Dorr and Rosalee Henderson. The group attended a basketball game at the high school and then returned to the home where refreshments were served. Miss Wilson received many useful gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Miller and four children, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Gehman, Hagerstown, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Zimmerman and son, Harrisonburg, Va., visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Shue, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Miller and children were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Jeffcoat and family, near Harney.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller and Mr. Miller's mother, Mrs. Edith Miller, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mummet, Elizabethtown.

HARRISBURG (P)—A bill calling for annual personnel reports by Pennsylvania bridge and road commissions has been sent to the House with Senate approval.

Bushey Is Corn Champion

Joseph F. Bushey of Gettysburg was recently proclaimed county corn growing champion at a banquet held in honor of Pennsylvania corn growing champions. His yield of 146.99 bushels per acre was the top yield in Adams County in the 1956 National Selected Five Acre DeKalb Corn Growing Contest. He was unable to attend the banquet. Runner-up winner was William O. Wolf (left to right) of New Oxford with a yield of 128.09 bushels per acre. Calvin F. Bream, also of Gettysburg, was third place winner producing a yield of 121.42 bushels per acre. Fourth place honors went to H. R. Stoops, Gettysburg, with a yield of 120.69 bushels per acre.

VALDES HURLS BROOKLYN TO WIN OVER CARDS

By JOHN CHANDLER
The Associated Press

It makes no difference to Brooklyn Manager Walt Alston whether they call him the Great Gutierrez or the Mighty Valdes, all Alston knows is that the skinny 6-3 Cuban with a smoking fast ball may be around Flatbush a lot longer than most people thought.

Rene Gutierrez y Valdes, who had a 22-8 record with Portland of the Pacific Coast League last season, displayed more of his classy hurling yesterday as the Dodgers edged the St. Louis Cardinals 2-1 in an 11-inning exhibition game at Vero Beach, Fla.

Rene added three more hitless and scoreless innings in his second appearance as a Dodger. He walked two Cardinals, and another reached base on an error, but none got past first.

"The Great Gutierrez"
In his Brooklyn debut Sunday, Valdes came to the mound with the bases loaded and none out in the eighth against the Detroit Tigers. Five of the Tigers popped up and the sixth bounced back to the box as Valdes preserved a 3-2 Dodger victory.

Valdes is known in Latin America as the Great Gutierrez, which is his father's name. At Portland it was the mighty Valdes, his mother's maiden name.

Valdes is signed to a contract with Los Angeles, Brooklyn's new Coast League farm club, but if he keeps up this kind of pitching he could move to Ebbets Field.

Tigers Club Bucs
Elsewhere:

The Detroit Tigers, smarting under criticism of Manager Jack Tighe after losing 8 of 10 exhibitions, clubbed four Pittsburgh pitchers for 11 hits, including a two-run homer by Charley Lau, to defeat the Pirates 8-4.

Ed Bouchee cracked a three-run homer and Bob Bowman got a solo round-trip to provide the punch as the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Washington Senators 6-4.

Larsen Battered
Don Larsen of the New York Yankees made his first appearance since his World Series perfect game and was battered soundly by the Cincinnati Redlegs, who won 20-6. He pitched three innings, gave up a homer to George Crowe, two triples, two doubles, a single and five runs. All told the Redlegs collected 25 hits.

Two walks with the bases loaded gave the Milwaukee Braves a pair of runs in their 3-2 verdict over the Kansas City Athletics. Bob Cerv homered for the A's. The Boston Red Sox defeated the Chicago White Sox 9-4, scoring five times in the fourth inning.

Allenberry Will Reopen On May 4

The Allenberry Playhouse at Bolling Springs will open on Saturday, May 4, for its ninth season. Fifteen plays will be given this year with each play running approximately two weeks. A recent musical comedy will be eprested mid-season.

Richard N. Gage, managing director, will again direct. He is currently completing the final casting for the season. Most of the plays scheduled have recently been produced on Broadway. A few revivals will complete the list.

Sponsored performances and theater parties are now being accepted.

SAYS PENN ST. WILL NEED MORE FUNDS TO DO JOB

PHILADELPHIA (P)—New taxes will be needed if Pennsylvania State University is to maintain an adequate faculty and meet its future responsibilities, says President Eric A. Walker.

Dr. Walker, speaking here last night at a Penn State alumni meeting, said the university has "done fairly well in the past" in meeting its responsibilities to the commonwealth. But, he added, "we don't think" the university is doing all "we should—or could."

Dr. Walker said low teachers' salaries have failed to keep pace with rising costs of living, making it difficult to obtain instructors. He declared that to provide an education for the same percentage of Pennsylvania young people in the future will require doubling of facilities by 1970. He added that a larger number of students will probably seek admission to the state university because indications are that private schools don't intend to increase their student populations much.

Near Bottom Of List
Pennsylvania ranks near the bottom of the list in the nation in per capita contributions to higher education, Dr. Walker said. He declared that Gov. Leader, "operating under tremendous pressures" against new taxes, recommended only a 10 per cent increase in the 1955-57 university appropriation. Penn State asked for 23 per cent more money. "We consider this a disaster budget," Dr. Walker said.

He said Leader is sensitive to the needs of higher education, and so "we felt we had his tacit approval to go direct to the Legislature."

"In doing so, we have reduced our requests" in one field by three-fourths. "The governor has indicated, we feel, that he will approve our new request" if the legislature does so and provides the funds.

WILL EXTEND PRESENT RATE ON EXCISE TAXES

WASHINGTON (P) — Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) said today House leaders have agreed to go along with a plan to increase from a year to 15 months an extension of present rates on corporation and excise taxes.

In view of this, Byrd told a reporter, the Finance Committee he heads undoubtedly will vote for the longer extension to July 1, 1958. The House already has voted an extension to April 1, 1958. Unless Congress acts, the business tax rates will drop April 1, cutting revenues three billion dollars a year.

Okay With House Leaders
Byrd said the longer extension would have the advantage of making the tax dates correspond with the government's fiscal year, which starts July 1, so that, "if we ever can cut taxes, we would know just how it would affect the revenue."

Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey told the Finance Committee he would have no objection to the 15-month extension provided it did not delay final action on the bill beyond March 31.

Byrd said House leaders had told him they would accept the change without a conference. This would mean the measure could be sent to the White House before the deadline if the Senate act by the middle of next week.

Present corporation rates include a 30 per cent normal tax on earnings up to $25,000, and a 22 per cent surtax on all the rest for a total of 52 per cent.

Earl Little Selected To 2nd All-Star South Penn Team; Balloting Is Close

Five schools placed one player each on the 1957 all-star basketball team of the South Penn Basketball League in selections made by members of the South Penn Sports-writers and Sportscasters Association and the nine school coaches.

Earl Little, Gettysburg High School junior, was chosen to the second team, the only Warrior player to be honored in the selections.

Extremely close balloting marked the annual choices. Twenty of 27 boys nominated received votes. Sportswriters of six area papers, radio stations at Hanover and Carlisle, and the school newspapers at Hershey and Middletown where there are no local newspapers, combined with the coaches in making the selections.

Graham "Captain"
Phil Graham, Carlisle, is the honorary captain of the squad as the result of polling the highest number of votes, 82, one more than Phil Houser, Mechanicsburg. Graham was fourth in individual league scoring during the past campaign with 290 points while Houser led the circuit with 374.

Russ Hopewell, Waynesboro, second in scoring with 325; Bob Forry, Hanover, 14th with 196 tallies, and Irv Ransom, Chambersburg, 11th with 253, round out the first five. Hopewell and Ransom are juniors while the others are seniors.

Little and Barry Daniels, Hershey, both juniors, topped the second team choices by polling 43 votes, one less than Ransom who gained the first team with 49.

Little Third Scorer
During the league season Little landed exactly 300 points to finish third in scoring. Overall for the season he collected 420 in 21 games for a 20.0 average per game.

Bill Polst and Carl Klinedinst, Hanover seniors, and Harry Stare, Middletown junior, complete the second squad. Daniels and Klinedinst were chosen to the 1956 second team.

The first "dream team" averages 6-1 in height, scored a total of 1,438 points during the past season for an average of 89.9 per game.

14 VETS GIVE CANNERS GOOD TRACK OUTLOOK

Prospects for a successful track season at Biglerville High School are bright with 14 veterans among the 53 candidates who have reported to Coach Donald Sterner and his assistant, Bernard Thrush.

Among the vets back on the squad are Captain Jim May, who runs in the 100, 200 and 800 relay; Ken Baltzley, javelin, 880 relay, broad jump; Larry Shillito, javelin, discus; Clair Fetter, 440, 880 and mile relay; Don Bowers, high jump. All are seniors. May has tied the 10.2 school mark in the 100-dash held by Eddie Utz. Baltzley finished third in the District 3 meet in the javelin last year.

Veterans of the Junior Class are Parker Coble, mile; Cecil Showers, quarter and half-mile; Jay Zeigler, pole vault, and Robert Snetter, hurdles. The Sophomore Class vets include John Harmon, shotput; Robert Burkhardt, hurdles and mile; Harold Baltzley, javelin; David Dull, hurdles, and Larry Rose, hurdles.

Promising Newcomers
Among the more promising newcomers are Joe Cicielski, a sophomore, in the shotput and discus; Kermit Jacoby, 100 and 220; George Flook, 880; Jack Prantz, mile, and Hershey Bowers, 100 and 200, all of whom are freshmen.

Announcement was made today that a meet with Hanover on the latter's field April 10 has been added to the schedule. An effort will be made to secure an opponent for a meet at Biglerville May 10 when May Day will be observed.

Tom Faulkner will join the coaching squad next week following the conclusion of his duties as wrestling coach.

WILT DRAWING SELLOUTS TO KANSAS COURT

LAWRENCE, Kans. (P) — Wilton Chamberlain is a young man with many problems — most of them for University of Kansas basketball opponents.

Chamberlain, better known as "Wilt the Stilt," is a 7-foot negro from Philadelphia, Pa. Now in his sophomore season he has more than lived up to his prep school billing as the greatest basketball prospect in history.

The lean, perfectly coordinated lad of 20 was sensational in leading Kansas to the championship of the Big Seven tournament. He wiped out three tourney records set by former All-Americans.

Offers Big Problem
How to stop Chamberlain on both offense and defense are the major problems facing rival teams.

As one coach put it: "If he doesn't kill you scoring, he kills you by getting all the rebounds and blocking your best shots."

Another coach commented: "Oh, he will be stopped — when

ILLEGAL GAS ELIMINATED AT SPEEDWAY

WILLIAMS GROVE, Pa. — Fast-running, race winning jalopy chauffeurs will have all suspicions of burning illegal fuel removed during the 1957 season when the popular jalopy stock cars return to the Williams Grove Speedway on March 31.

Owner Roy Richwine today announced that all shadow of suspicion of drivers "souping" up their fuel will be eliminated under new rules which will be in effect as the management cracks down hard on the possibility.

To meet the conditions of the new rules, a gasoline pump has been installed adjacent to the barns near the ramp leading to the half-mile oval by the American Oil Co. Drivers will be provided with gasoline at cost, each car to receive a requisite amount of fuel as entered. Each gasoline tank, equipped with a plug on the bottom, will then be closed with a lead sealer to preclude all possibility of anyone tampering with the fuel.

"At the end of the race," Richwine explained, "the lead sealer will be checked to see if it has been broken. The driver of any car on which the sealer has been broken will be automatically disqualified, losing all his earnings for the race and forfeiting points toward the championship."

Meanwhile, a warm-up and registration day is planned for this Sunday afternoon. The track will be open for practice for registered cars and drivers, with free admission to the public.

One week after the first stock car race — Sunday, April 7 — big cars under sanction of the United States Auto Club will make their 1957 debut on the oval. Richwine reported that entries for this race are already being received from terrific big car stars.

ELIK BIG STAR FOR BARONS IN HOCKEY LEAGUE

By FRANK ECK
AP Sports Editor

Ever since the hockey season began, Jim Hendy, general manager of the Cleveland Barons, has been putting his chest out — and with good reason.

He believes he has the rookie of the year in the American Hockey League in Boris (Bo) Elik, a 27-year-old left winger who is playing his first season as a professional.

All Elik has done is lead the league in scoring during most of the first half of the campaign. In his first 35 games he showed 57 points on 28 goals and 29 assists.

At that stage he was one point off leader Paul Larivee of Providence. Makes Fast Jump

"Elik played one tryout game with Cleveland last season and never signed as a pro until this season," says Hendy. "He had been playing senior amateur hockey in the Northern Ontario League for seven years, or since he got out of junior hockey."

"Bo looked good at the Barons training camp at North Bay and we turned him pro, through a fluke. Baldy Mackay, secured by us from the Montreal Canadiens, was to be our third left wing. But Baldy had a bad knee and was forced to quit hockey. That left an opening so I signed Elik and put him on a line with two of our top men, Jimmy Moore, drafted at 28 from the Quebec League, and Fred Glover, a veteran right wing."

Elik soon caught fire on ice. He had 18 goals in his first 16 games. It was all the more remarkable because as an amateur he never scored more than 20 goals a season.

Elik looks like an athlete. He's 190 pounds, 6 feet and rugged with which can be attested to by his 51 minutes in the penalty box in his first 35 games.

"He loves the rough going," says Hendy. "He can skate and do anything you ask him to do on ice. I think he's a clinch to win the rookie of the year award in our league."

Golden Glovers Of Chicago Win 7-1

CHICAGO (P) — Chicago's Golden Gloves team had the golden touch last night as it decisively battered a New York team in scoring its most outstanding triumph in the intercity boxing bouts.

The Chicago bombardment was set-off in two explosive TKO victories in the first two matches and was wrapped up in the final heavyweight bout for a lop-sided 7-1 victory.

Joe Hemphill unleashed punishing combinations to subdue Lee Williams, flabby New York contender from Lowell, Mass., in the heavyweight division. Hemphill, former European Service champion from Rockford, Ill., was in command all the way against the sometimes bulldozing Williams.

Many of the amateur bouts at the Chicago Stadium were nationally televised.

REDS CAPTURE AHL PENNANT

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Providence Reds have won the American Hockey League pennant for the second straight year and head into the playoffs as the favorite to also retain the Calder Cup.

The Reds clinched first place last night without lifting a puck when the Cleveland Barons dropped a 5-1 decision to the last place Springfield Indians. Whether the Reds open at home Tuesday against Cleveland, Rochester or Hershey depends on the final two games to be played by each team Saturday and Sunday.

The Barons, who also lost a chance to take sole possession of second place, still are tied with Rochester at 69 points each with Hershey only a point back after defeating Buffalo 6-4 last night.

Ken Schinkel scored twice for Springfield after Cleveland had sprung off in front. Schinkel's first goal in the second period sent the Indians off in front to stay.

The Hershey-Buffalo game was a nip and tuck affair with the Bears rallying for three goals in the final period.

OWLS, MEMPHIS DRAW SUPPORT IN NIT GAMES

By TED MEIER

NEW YORK (P) — Bradley and St. Bonaventure have been made the early favorites to win tonight's semifinals in the National Invitation basketball tournament, but there will be plenty of support for Temple over Bradley and Memphis State over St. Bonaventure.

This observer goes along with the minority and picks Temple over Bradley and Memphis State over St. Bonaventure.

Second-seeded Bradley is favored on the basis of its astounding 116-81 Madison Square Garden record — breaking a comeback against Xavier of Ohio Tuesday after being down 21 points at 38-17. The Bonnies get the nod because of their 85-68 trouncing of top-seeded Seattle Monday.

"After that performance by Bradley, I don't know how we can beat them," said Temple Coach Harry Litwack. "But we'll be on the floor."

Won't Collapse

That should be enough for anyone who watched the slick, poised Owls from Philadelphia whip Dayton 77-66 Tuesday. Litwack has a court wizard in junior southpaw Guy Rodgers, who inspires teammates Jay Norman and Mel Brodsky to great heights. They do not figure to collapse as Xavier did before a Bradley all-court press.

In addition, as Litwack pointed out, "our boys like to play in the Garden." Temple has lost only one game in the Garden in five years and that by one point to Ohio State in the Holiday Festival last December.

Memphis State, led by little Jack Butcher, a 5-9 "giant killer" upset Utah and Manhattan and figures to show steady improvement against the Bonnies.

As St. Bonaventure did against Cincinnati and Seattle, the Tigers from Memphis came from behind in each game. They have a strong bench and do not figure to become rattled.

Tonight's winners meet Saturday afternoon for the championship. Tonight's losers play for third place.

YOVICIN SAYS HIS OFFENSE IS LIKE YALE'S '56

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (P) — John Yovicin, recently named Harvard's 22nd head football coach, said Wednesday his T-formation offense is similar to that employed by Yale's 1956 Ivy League champions.

Yovicin, whose teams at Gettysburg College won 32 and lost 11 in five years, arrived during a heavy snowstorm for a three-day visit with Harvard athletic officials and a first meeting with Crimson players.

The 38-year-old coach said he has reviewed slow-motion movies of last year's Harvard-Yale game (a Yale romp) and added "my offense is similar to Yale's."

"We both use a straight T with split ends, some spacing in the line but not essentially a split T," he explained. "And the Yale backs are in an upright stance as in my formation."

Yovicin said he planned to "get acquainted" with Ted Schmitt and Josh Williams, assistants for seven years under Lloyd Jordan, who was fired as Harvard coach after last season's 2-8 record. He indicated he is thinking of retaining both on his staff.

After his whirlwind visit, Yovicin said he plans to return to Gettysburg and move his family to Cambridge.

GEORGE BAYER HOPES TO HIT WINNER CIRCLE

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (P) — George Bayer swung his driver and a shiny white golf ball out through the bright sunlight, a faint speck against the blue sky. It settled on a palm-shaded green some 350 yards away.

The crowd watching the clinic was duly impressed by the man who probably is golf's greatest one-shot attraction. They crowded around for autographs and advice from the man who hits a ball farther than anybody in the world.

On the tee, Bayer is the greatest. Yet he never has won a pro tournament. Three times he has finished second, the latest at Mexico City shortly before the St. Petersburg Open.

Until tournament play starts, Bayer is the star. His longest measured drive carried 420 yards before it hit a man at Las Vegas, prompting a tape measure job. But he can't win.

"Wants To Win"

Bayer makes a comfortable living for he gets a retainer from a golf club manufacturer. Still he lives for the day when he no longer will be a curiosity but a genuine all-around golfing star.

"I never practice the driving," he said later in the clubhouse. "I work on the short irons, the chipping and putting. In this game a fellow has to be an egoist. I want to prove to myself and to a lot of people that I am capable of winning."

"Hitting a long drive is great. It gives me an advantage to be able to average 285 yards to most pros' 245. I get plenty of exhibitions but you have to be able to make all the shots to prove you really can play. Then you'll get three times as many offers."

Commission Now Stocking Streams

HARRISBURG (P) — The State Fish Commission says it expects to complete its stocking of Pennsylvania streams and ponds with about 2,407,410 trout by the opening of the season April 15.

The fish are all yearlings and are being placed in 4,444 miles of streams and in 52 lakes. The stocking program began, March 1, a month later than other years.

SHARON DUMPS FARRELL, LAST YEAR'S CHAMPS

HARRISBURG (P) — Sharon High School, 1-point victor over McKeesport for the WPIAL Class A basketball title, took up a snug quarterfinal position in the inter-district playoffs today with the state championship its target.

The Sect. III champion's triumph in the long and tough Dist. 7 playoffs raised the possibility that the state title would again go west and again to Sect. III. Sharon eliminated Farrell, last year's state champion, to enter the WPIAL playoffs.

Accurate shooting at the foul line by Mike Matta and Ed Winters in the final moments helped pull Sharon from a third-quarter sluch for a 56-55 victory over McKeesport last night.

To Meet Altoona

The victory put Sharon into a quarterfinal interdistrict game tomorrow night against Altoona, Dist. 5 champion.

Two other quarterfinal games shaped up last night. Coal Twp. whipped past Nanticoke, 71-51, and now meets Reading tomorrow, and Erie Strong Vincent turned a field goal with six seconds left into a 63-62 victory over Clearfield.

The win puts Erie Strong Vincent against Dist. 8 champion Oliver tomorrow night.

Sharon is regarded as a likely candidate to get past Altoona and either Erie Strong Vincent or Oliver, thus securing the western championship and a berth in the state finals.

Should that occur, however, the opposition then will be one of four formidable eastern contingents. This field narrows to three tonight when Chester, Dist. 1 champion, takes on Allentown from Dist. 11.

SAY LOGBOOK ALTERED IN DOCTOR'S CASE

By JAMES F. KING

LONDON (AP) — The prosecution suggested today that a nurse's logbook had been altered in the case of the rich widow Dr. John Bodkin Adams is accused of poisoning.

Atty. Gen. Sir Reginald Manningham-Buller started the court with his attack on the records which attorneys for the 58-year-old doctor have used in challenging testimony given from memory by prosecution witnesses.

Holding up one of the little red books while nurse Caroline Randall was on the stand, the prosecutor asked the middle-aged woman to look at the entry for Aug. 23, 1950. He then asked her if something had been cut out of the page at the bottom.

Surprise Evidence
The nurse replied "Yes," and added she could not say whether she might have cut out anything from a record she had made. She also said she did not remember what was on the page.

The entry cited was made three months before Dr. Adams' 81-year-old patient, Mrs. Edith Alice Morrell, died. The prosecution charges the doctor drugged her to death to benefit from her will.

The defense sprung the nurse's logbooks as a surprise two days ago and Manningham-Buller admitted he had not known of their existence. The books were not mentioned in the preliminary hearing when the government accused Adams of also killing two other patients who lived near Mrs. Morrell in Eastbourne, Victorian home of the wealthy retired.

One Inch Missing
The prosecutor declared someone had written some words in green ink, while the rest of the writing was in blue ink. He also asserted two words had been cut through.

The judge, Sir Patrick Arthur Devlin, leaned forward from his high perch on the bench in the middle, medieval setting of Old Bailey and asked to see the logbook. About one inch was missing from the bottom of the page.

HARRISBURG (AP) — Republican State Chairman George I. Bloom says appointment of six assistant governors, proposed by the Government Reorganization Commission, would be more "red tape" without "any worthwhile results."

"If the governor picks competent men to head his departments and has confidence that they know their jobs, there is no need for six supernumeraries to keep any eye on what they do," Bloom said in a statement yesterday.

Teen-Age Chicago Gangs Make Headlines Like Adult Thugs

CHICAGO (AP) — Teen-age gangs now are producing Chicago headlines of the same type the adult mobsters did in the past.

The headlines are over stories of crimes of violence—such as the recent slayings of a boy in a hammer attack and a man in a motel robbery.

"There's no use burying our heads in the sand," comments Walter Devereux, chief investigator of the Chicago Crime Commission. "This city is not safe to roam in and it's getting worse."

12,439 cases in '56

But the juvenile division of the Police Department says that, on the basis of the current rate, it doubts that the crime rate for 1957 will be much higher than 1956.

During 1956 there were 12,439 cases noted by the division. The statistics included: larceny of automobiles, 747; burglary, 614; robberies (mostly strong arm), 229.

The bulk of the others were in the minor class. The record shows that 4,845 of the complaints were handled by "station adjustment"—such things as quarreling, ringing doorbells and annoying the neighbors that got no farther than an area police station.

Extort From Pupils

But there have been a number of instances of teen-age gang action. Such as these:

An elderly shoe repair man and five youths were viciously attacked by a gang of some 30 toughs, armed with bottles and knives, apparently without provocation. The victims were hospitalized.

Two gangs wrecked a restaurant in an outbreak of rivalry and when thrown out, later returned, fired a bullet through a window and wounded an innocent customer. A gang preyed on high school pupils, extorting 50 cents to $2 weekly as protection money.

17 Indicted For Murder

Another gang specialized in stealing automobile tires and during a one-year period stole $16,000 worth of tires besides committing five other burglaries.

Thirteen white toughs are reportedly under indictment for murder in the hammer slaying of Alvin Palmer, a Negro teenager who was attacked as he stood at a South Side bus stop.

Four other teen-agers have been indicted for murder in the fatal shooting of Charles Stryker, 48, during a robbery of his suburban Alsip motel.

And so the reports go, day after day.

More Delinquent Girls

Family Court officers report that since the first of the year they have been investigating an average of 374 juvenile crimes a month.

Relatively new to the teen-age crime picture is the rising role of delinquent girls. Family court officers report that a six-year survey shows an increase of 89 per cent among the number of girls involved in juvenile crimes, compared with an increase of 54 per cent for boys.

A crime official recently said: "The only people you can blame are their parents."

EDDIE'S FORECAST

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Interplanetary travel will become "commonplace" in the next 50 years, World War I ace Eddie Rickenbacker told an audience of Rotarians.

The 715-ft. 37,800 D.W.T. "Esso Gettysburg" recently entered service for the Esso Shipping Company. This American flag tanker was built by Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Company. 26,500 horsepower is delivered through a single shaft to a four-blade screw capable of driving the vessel at nearly 20 knots when fully loaded. The maximum volumetric cargo oil tank capacity is 318,000 barrels. Each member of the crew has an individual air-cooled cabin. Three television receivers have been installed in the public rooms for the enjoyment of all hands.

The "Esso Gettysburg" is the first of four ships of her class the Newport News yard is building for Esso Shipping Company. A sister ship, the "Esso Washington," was launched on February 15. Two more vessels of the same class will be completed in 1958. The yard will then begin constructing five more American flag tankers of 46,000 D.W.T. for Esso Shipping Company.

PASS MEASURE TO REGISTER PESTICIDES

HARRISBURG (AP) — Legislation increasing state regulations over the sale of pesticides has been passed by the House and sent to the Senate.

The bill, to be effective Jan. 1, would require registration of pesticides with the state at $7.50 for each of the first 10 brands registered by a manufacturer. The fee for additional brands would be $2 each.

Manufacturers would be required to print on their labels their names, addresses, trade marks, the word "poison" and the antidote.

The measure, introduced by Rep. Francis Worley (R-Adams), was passed 171-1.

Other bills gaining House approval yesterday would:

Authorize third class cities and first and second class townships to create and maintain separate capital reserve funds for anticipated capital expenditures (three bills, 170-0, 171-0, 172-0, to Senate).

Allow second, third or fourth class school districts to sell or exchange unused land with adjoining districts upon approval of two-thirds of the directors of the district. (169-0, to Senate).

Nearby Site May Be New State Park

HARRISBURG (AP) — A State Forests and Waters Department spokesman said today the department is considering a site three miles south of Lewistown for a recreation area in the state park system.

"This site is being considered as are hundreds of others throughout this vast state," said Joseph Blatt, park consultant in the Division of Recreation.

"We have sent engineers to look over the site on the Juniata River but that is only one of many sites in that area being considered," Blatt added. He said a decision on a site would not be made for "at least several weeks or perhaps even months."

"We have been scouring the state river banks to find spots where the people can bet their boats and other equipment down to the water without too much difficulty," Blatt said.

SEES "JOKER" IN CANCER-FAG RELATIONSHIP

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal cancer specialist says there is a "joker" in the recently reported discovery of a cancer-causing ingredient in cigarette smoke. He said the cause-effect relationship is not yet established.

Dr. John R. Heller, director of the National Cancer Institute, gave that opinion to a House Appropriations subcommittee Feb. 19, in closed-door testimony made public today.

Dr. Heller was asked about a news story last month that Dr. Nguyenphoc Buu Hoi, a French-educated Vietnamese working at the Curie Institute in Paris, had found an agent in cigarette smoke that invariably causes cancer in mice.

"Important Advance"

Dr. Heller said the Paris doctor "took a compound called 3-4-9-10 dibenzparine, and all the animals in which he injected this compound developed cancer."

"The joker in it, however, is that this compound was not obtained from cigarette smoke, but was a tar which was taken from a laboratory on the presumption that someone had previously identified this compound as being in tobacco tar."

"So it is not a true expression of causation from given tobacco smoke."

"It is an important advance in the identification and characterization of a chemical, but it is not a direct association to given tobacco smoke."

HAMMARSKJOLD FLIES TO CAIRO TO MEET NASSER

CAIRO (AP) — U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold flew into Cairo today for talks with President Nasser and other top Egyptian officials on the issues still threatening the Middle East with violence.

Egypt was expected to balk at the plea Hammarskjold reportedly will make for an Egyptian-Israeli proclamation of nonbelligerency.

It was believed Hammarskjold would call for such pledges as a major curb against renewed warfare and that Israel would agree to go along. The Israelis have said all along they are ready to talk peace with their Arab neighbors.

Allies Won't Talk

The Arab allies of the 1948 Palestine War have refused to talk peace with the Israelis. They have used the continuing technical state of war as a basis for their economic boycott of Israel and their refusal to let Israeli ships use the Suez Canal and the Gulf of Aqaba. There appeared little hope Egypt would modify that position in the current talks with Hammarskjold.

The secretary general was smiling as he stepped from the plane that brought him on his fifth visit to Egypt in little more than a year. He declined to make any statement to reporters.

A U.N. press spokesman said he did not know whether Hammarskjold would visit the canal area and the Gaza Strip or how long he would remain in Egypt.

Met With Cabinet

For the Gaza Strip, Hammarskjold was expected to try to work out a plan that would neutralize the Mediterranean coastal area militarily while leaving it under Egyptian administration. He will urge the stationing of UNEF troops along both sides of the border separating Gaza and Israel, a proposal Israel rejected previously in regard to its territory.

Nasser met for two hours last night with his Cabinet on Egypt's position regarding the Suez Canal amid reports that he might agree to accept U.N. technical assistance after the canal is completely reopened. Nasser would not give up any control of the canal, but it was said he might agree to set aside a specific fund for maintenance and accept U.N. technical help in the operation of the waterway.

son, John Jr., of Newark, Del., will spend the weekend with Dr. and Mrs. Robert McVaugh, Middleburg Rd.

Rome, N.Y., Barber Gives Haircut And Lesson On Gettysburg And Other Points In Civil War History

The following article is reprinted from a recent edition of The Rome (N. Y.) Daily Sentinel.

By WALT STALOFF

"The guys kid about it," said Sam. "Where," they ask, "can you get a haircut and a lesson in history the same time?"

He left off lathering a customer's face and flourished a straight razor about the shop. There, plastered on the walls were row upon row of pictures of the Civil War.

The man who frames them was being shaved. Another buddy was in for a lunch-hour chat and he said he was always telling Sam to go on the "64,000 Question" show.

Sam Occhipinti grinned when he heard that. "Everybody in his own line," he told his friend. Sam has hung the major conflicts of the four-year struggle between North and South in chronological succession about his shop. In the front room of his home at 408 W. Liberty St.

Kids Are Amazed

"Kids are amazed when they come in here," says Sam. "They ask me a lot of questions and when I tell them father fought against father they say who's the bad guys and I tell them there was no bad guys actually."

You'll still pay 75 cents for a shave and $1.50 per haircut but you'll get a 2½ by 3½ foot view of Gettysburg mounted on the back wall over the sink. Sam had a friend letter the caption, "Armies of the North and South in Bitter Combat at Gettysburg—July 3, 1863."

And while you're stretched horizontally and that razor hovers above you'll run into Sam's enthusiasm for the Civil War.

Yesterday afternoon, he opened the venetian blinds facing the street and for a while the rain skies parted and sunlight washed the linoleum floor.

Has Large Display

This, combined with fluorescent ceiling and wall fixtures, lighted up his shop; the geranium plant by the front window, the television set in the corner, the bottles of hair gels, and pictures—pictures of Chancellorsville, Fredericksburg, Antietam, Lookout Mountain, Cedar Creek, Stone River, Chattanooga, the Wilderness. Sam—you can't beat the Civil War for interest—lost himself in telling of the pictures, his passion for collecting them, collecting books and comparing facts.

An article in a Sunday edition of the New York Daily News said Pickett's Charge at Gettysburg was on a Sunday, but Sam in his reading found otherwise. He went behind the curtain into his living room and brought forth a book that included an excerpt from the account of a Col. Fremantle, an English guest with Lee's Army of Northern Virginia, that points to the charge occurring on a Friday.

English Colonel Account

"I always wanted to know what days the Battle of Gettysburg was fought," explained Sam, shaving away, "so I bought this book" written by a retired superintendent of guides and in it is the account of the English colonel.

His curiosity, fascination, all started with, "Gone With the Wind," a film he has seen four times. "I'll even see it again if it comes around next year."

The war was a "family affair," said Sam of its lure. "Brothers fought brothers, sons fought fathers." And during it Lincoln became the "greatest president of all time, because of the course of events that took place around him and which will never be repeated."

Decisive Conflict

He began collecting pictures several years ago, obtaining them from the Library of Congress and antique shops. A customer plunked in the only chair in the middle of the shop—gazing about while the scissors snip—will find himself amidst rows of marching men, starting from the first battle at

Sam Occhipinti, popular barber in Rome, N. Y., is shown administering some tonsorial art while he lectures on Civil War history. On his barber shop wall in background are several pictures of Gettysburg Battlefield and other scenes of the War Between the States.

Bull Run to the decisive Gettysburg conflict.

He might tip Sam on the whereabouts of other pictures. Or, like the friend with his face wrapped in a hot towel, he might fall asleep.

Sam, swept up in Civil War drameas, would stop working to tell of a particular battle or picture or how, someday, all the pictures will be in color.

Proves Point

To prove or illustrate a point, he brought books from the living room, and folders filled with pictures of his September tour of battlefield sites.

Only one patron—a fellow with a shortage of hair—told Sam to tend his business and this guy was a professional needer.

Nick Campanaro, an old friend now of Miami, Fla., got him traveling. The first year, said Sam, "I just took in Gettysburg."

"Take your kids there," he urges. It has "beautiful monuments and markers" and was such a "thrill to him that he decided to 'see all the battlefields in Virginia.'"

This fall he, his wife, a son, Mickey, and Nick, covered 1,523 miles in a week's tour of six sites of major battles in that state.

"Next year I want to visit where it started—Ft. Sumter, in South Carolina, and if God willing, I live long enough, I'll visit them all."

Southampton Dockworkers Strike When Government Tugs Help Queen To Sail

LONDON (P)—Dockworkers struck at Southampton today protesting use of government tugs in aiding the liner Queen Mary to sail for New York. The strike threatened to paralyze the vast transatlantic terminal.

The dockworkers, mostly shore gangs who handle the direct traffic in the port, joined 10,000 shipyard workers and repairmen who have been on strike since Saturday as part of a nationwide stoppage in support of a 10 per cent wage increase.

The liner was escorted out of port early this morning by navy tugs ordered into service by the British government.

This produced angry charges of strikebreaking from shipyard workers, and their union leaders appealed to the dockworkers to join in a sympathy protest.

Repairs Unfinished
The shipyard workers claimed repairs on the 81,000-ton Queen Mary had not been finished when the nationwide shipyard strike began last Saturday. The walkout of 250,000 workmen idled 70 shipyards and stopped work on 300 ships under construction.

Crewmen aboard privately owned tugs refused to help move the New York-bound Queen Mary, and shore gangs declined to cast off her mooring lines. Cunard office workers handled the lines and six government tugs got her out.

MANY DISABLED

him from working are not counted against him in figuring the social security benefits due him in the future or payable to his family in case of his death. Of the 700,000, about 400,000 people—those between 50 and 65 years old—are eligible for monthly disability insurance benefits beginning with July.

Although social security district offices have been accepting applications from disabled workers since January 1, 1955, the bureau reports that many of those eligible have not yet applied. Under the law, workers who were already disabled were given 2½ years to apply to protect their social security rights. After June 30, the end of that 2½-year period, an application will be effective to freeze a worker's social security record for no more than one year back.

Mus' Meet Requirements

A disabled person must meet certain requirements at the beginning of his official "period of disability." He must have social security credit for at least five of the ten years before he became disabled and at least a year and a half of the credit must have been earned in the three years just before his official "period of disability" began.

If application for the "disability freeze" is not made before June 30, 1957, many disabled workers may no longer meet these work requirements. For some younger workers, delay in making application might also mean a complete loss of all social security benefit rights.

Abbottstown

ABBOTTSTOWN—Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Hoke, Hopewell, Va., spent the weekend with their parents. Mr. Hoke is attending quartermaster training school at Ft. Lee, Va.

Mrs. Fred Altland has been admitted as a surgical patient to the Hanover Hospital.

Artie Gulden attended the farm sale of Mrs. Spencer Stradsbaugh at Huntington last Friday.

The local fire company responded to two alarms last week, the first at the home of Carl Alwine where a brooder house and 200 chicks were destroyed and to a chimney fire at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Slagle.

TORQUATO WILL NOT LEAVE HIS COUNTY OFFICE

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (P)—John R. Torquato, Cambria County Democratic chairman for the past 13 years, said today he will not resign despite opposition by seven county office holders and two judges.

In a joint statement yesterday, two of the county's three Democratic judges asked Torquato to resign in view of his dismissal Jan. 2 as state secretary of labor and industry.

At the same time, seven top Democratic office holders renounced allegiance to their county chief and called for an administrative reorganization of the Cambria committee.

Torquato, now serving a seventh two-year term that expires in June 1958, said he is "answerable only to the duly elected committee members and committeewomen and the Democratic party voters x x x not any self-appointed group."

Fired By Governor

Gov. Leader fired Torquato after it was revealed he used part of a $1,170,000 departmental fund to pay the salaries of 23 special investigators who held other employment.

Judges Ivan J. McKenrick and Alton A. McDonald said in their statement that they "stood on their rights as Democratic voters . . . with respect to this important matter." They said they could not "become involved in a political controversy."

The judges said Torquato should resign, not only because of his ouster from the cabinet post, but because of "other matters involving some members of the Democratic party." They did not elaborate.

"Unpleasant" Events

The seven office holders, in renouncing allegiance to Torquato, cited "unpleasant current events beyond our control involving some members of our party in addition to the unexplained summary dismissal of John R. Torquato as secretary of labor and industry by Gov. Leader."

The statement was signed by Dist. Atty. David C. Wolfe, Recorder of Deeds Dennis L. Westrick, Register of Wills Michael J. Hartnett, Clerk of Courts Joseph Wess, Prothonotary Joseph C. D. C. and Commissioners Thomas A. Owens and Pat Farrell.

Torquato said the "self-appointed" group of office holders seeks to disrupt party harmony "for their own selfish purposes, which I am willing to reveal to the county committee at the proper time and place."

U. S. Firing Rockets From Canadian Area

PHILADELPHIA (P)—Police said a trespasser climbed aboard a parked and empty Allegheny Airlines plane at International Airport today, damaged some wires in the tail assembly and then went to sleep on the floor.

Two workmen assigned to clean the plane found him later and called guards. The guards aroused the man with difficulty and turned him over to city police.

The discovery caused a 1½-hour delay in the scheduled departure of the twin-engine, 24-passenger DC 3. It was bound for Harrisburg and Bradford, Pa., and Buffalo, N.Y.

Police began a detailed investigation, mindful of a wave of recent bomb scares aboard passenger airplanes and at airports in many parts of the country. The FBI was notified.

The man identified himself as Robert B. Marston, 27, of Boston. He told police he came here from Boston on a bus three days ago.

He said he didn't remember how he got to the airport or how he got aboard the plane. He appeared dazed. Police said he will be given a mental examination.

TWO ESCAPE FROM 6TH FLOOR CELLS

CAMDEN, N.J. (P)—Two prisoners, using a hacksaw, escaped from their sixth floor Camden City jail cells, beat a guard and fled today.

The fugitives were identified as Donald Bishop, 23, and Joseph E. Gribbin, 23, both of Camden. They had been scheduled for arraignment in Camden Municipal Court today on charges of armed robbery and larceny of an automobile.

Police said that one of the fugitives— which one it was not learned immediately— used a smuggled hacksaw to cut his way out of his cell, then freed the other. Both men attacked jailer Oliver Morgan, 69, and locked him in one of the sixth floor cells. The two fled by way of the building elevator.

HARRISBURG (P)—Bills to transfer 11 million dollars to the general fund from the Revenue Department and a special disaster relief fund are ready for final House action next week.

The bills, introduced by Sen. Rowland B. Mahany and passed by the Senate this week, gained House Appropriations Committee approval yesterday.

RICHARD NIXON EXPECTED TODAY

TUNIS (P)—Vice President Nixon was flying home today from his 32-day African tour with recommendations to increase U. S. economic and technical aid to countries on the African continent.

He was due in Washington at 1:30 p.m. at an American embassy, consulates and information offices.

He also wants better personnel at American embassies, consulates and information offices.

Nixon took off in his special Air Force plane after attending a sports program celebrating Tunisia's first year of independence. French Justice Minister Francois Mitterand, France's representative at the program, left the stadium in a huff and flew back to Paris when he found Algerian nationalist leader Ferhat Abbas seated nearby.

Mitterand and Nixon met at the airport and chatted for 20 minutes. Nixon reportedly told the Frenchman the Algerian-French struggle could be resolved only through peaceful names.

CONVICTED ON MORALS CHARGE

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (P)—A Philadelphia man, convicted on morals charges growing out of the investigation of a two-state vice ring, faces sentencing tomorrow in Montgomery County Court.

He is Bernard Featherman, 27, who was found guilty yesterday of urging 19-year-old Marie Mastropieri, also of Philadelphia, to commit an illicit act with him.

Miss Mastropieri testified the offense was committed at the home of James and Cornelia Worden near here. Featherman's attorney, Morris Gerber, said he planned to seek a new trial.

Meanwhile, three other defendants were acquitted on related charges. They were Morris Yuter, a 30-year-old public relations man of Philadelphia; Alan Savatt, 33, a New York City salesman; and Marvin Paul, 28, of Philadelphia.

All three were alleged to have attended parties at the Worden home. Worden and his wife both have pleaded guilty and been convicted on morals counts.

IKE WRITES TO BOY, 12, WHO LOST HIS LEGS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—President Eisenhower has sought to rally the spirits of a 12-year-old boy who lost both legs in a fall under a freight car Feb. 10.

In a letter delivered this week to Gerry Corkery, the President encouraged the boy: "Please get well soon." This was followed by another "get well" message, given to Gerry in the children's ward of Episcopal Hospital, this one from Sherman Adams, chief presidential assistant. With it was an autographed picture of the President.

The Eisenhower letter said: "I know just how hard it is for an active boy like yourself to face the problems that you have, but I am also completely confident that you will courageously return to your school and home routines."

"I like to think that there must be compensations in misfortune such as yours, and difficult as it is for you to accept now, I am sure you will discover many as you grow older."

The President said he learned about the accident from Rep. James Byrne (D-Pa.), whose family has been close to the Corkerys for years.

GREEK CYPRIOTS REJECT NATO'S CYPRUS OFFER

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Greek Cypriots and the Greek government have rejected a British-approved offer by NATO to mediate for peace on Cyprus.

British Colonial Secretary Alan Lennox-Boyd told the House of Commons yesterday London was willing to let the North Atlantic Treaty Organization try to settle the controversy over the strategic British colonial island in the east Mediterranean. The plan was for NATO to attempt conciliation among Britain, Greece and Turkey—all NATO members.

Within hours, Greek and Greek Cypriot leaders declared their opposition.

No Turkish Reaction
There was no immediate Turkish reaction.

Most of the 400,000 Greek Cypriots want Cyprus united with Greece. The 100,000 Turkish Cypriots oppose this.

Mayor Themistocles N. Dervis of Nicosia declared that "the Cyprus problem is not one of differences existing among the governments of Greece, Turkey and Great Britain, but one which affects the self-determination of Cyprus. It should be settled directly between Britain and Archbishop Makarios, the representative of the Greek Cypriot people."

Attack British Okay

Andreas Poniouros, leftist mayor of Famagusta, on Cyprus' east coast, said the Greek Orthodox archbishop should be freed from his interment on the Seychelle Islands "unconditionally in order to resume negotiations with the British government."

EOKA, the Greek Cypriot underground, last week offered a truce in its guerrilla war against the British if the British would end the archbishop's exile. Lennox-Boyd in reply told Parliament Makarios would be freed immediately if he would call a halt to the anti-British violence on Cyprus. But he added the churchman could not return to the island, where the British claim he helped direct the EOKA campaign.

In Athens, Greek Premier Constantine Karamanlis in a statement attacked Britain's acceptance of the NATO conciliation offer. He said it ignored a U. N. General Assembly resolution, adopted 55-0 on Feb. 26, calling for resumed negotiations aimed at attaining democratic, peaceful conditions on the island.

Money Hidden In Diaper Escapes Thief

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Mrs. Reba Hartung outwitted a robber by hiding $120 in her son's diaper.

She said the young thief forced his way into her apartment. She asked that he let her change her 7-month-old baby's diapers. He agreed, and she quickly switched the money from her budget envelope to the diapers.

The thief, who managed to find $31 Mrs. Hartung had hidden elsewhere, did not think of searching the child.

DECLARES U. S. IS RECEIVING GOOD RETURNS ON NON-RED AID

By REILMAN MORIN
WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is getting "a good return" on the billions spent for military help to non-Communist nations, three survey groups reported today.

However, the costs of the program are more likely to go up than down, said the report made public by a special Senate committee studying U.S. foreign aid. And there may have to be an increase in military manpower, it said.

The three groups evaluated the results of the military aid program in similar terms:

"A valuable deterrent to Communist expansion . . . To date, the investment of the United States in military aid programs has served materially to stabilize the free world and discourage aggression."

Panel Reviews Findings
The report was composed of findings by Columbia University's Institute of War and Peace Studies and by the Systems Analysis Corp. of Washington.

A five-man panel reviewed and commented on their findings. The panel was composed of Marx that about four fifths of military assistance funds are spent in the United States," the report said. From the start of the program through 1955, it said, the United States delivered to allies and other countries about 40,000 tanks and combat vehicles, 1,200 naval craft, 40,000 pieces of artillery, 7,000 aircraft, two million small arms and automatic weapons, and unspecified "billions" of rounds of ammunition.

This armament went — and is still going — to 36 nations, the survey showed. It said that the North Atlantic Treaty Organization nations assume about 85 per cent of their own defense costs. The United States and Canada furnished funds for the remainder.

Two Are Killed, 8 Injured In Mishap

MEDFORD, N.J. (AP)—A trailer truck jackknifed on slippery Rt. 70 last night and hit a car killing two passengers and injuring eight others.

Dead are Jimmie Lee Wesley, 37, of 212 Paterson St., Chester, Pa., and Mrs. Estella Best, 39, his sister-in-law, of the same address.

Wesley's wife and daughter were injured as were four children of Mrs. Best. Arnold F. Kohler, 32, of Forked River, N. J., told police his truck buckled and the tractor came loose, slashing across the rain-swept highway into the car.

Says Gas Tax Can Be Cut And Not Affect Federal Aid

HARRISBURG (AP) — The chairman of the Senate Highways Committee said Wednesday the gasoline tax can be cut to five cents a gallon and still permit Pennsylvania to qualify for all available federal road aid.

Sen. George N. Wade (R-Cumberland) said he analyzed Gov. Leader's proposed 720-million-dollar highway budget and found that the state will start off with 100 million dollars in cash next June 1 — an all-time high.

"It could be debated that this administration has lost sight of the fact that highway user taxes were intended to build roads and not to lie dormant in the Pennsylvania state treasury."

$66 Million Balance
The governor estimated the cash balance at the start of the next two-year fiscal period June 1 would be 66 million dollars. He asked that the 6-cent-a-gallon gasoline tax be kept at that rate instead of dropping to 5 cents June 1 as proposed by the GOP.

Wade noted that the State Highway and Bridge Authority has done nothing to use an additional 40 million dollars in borrowing capacity authorized by the 1955 Legislature.

This 40 millions, he said, could be used as the state's share for federal interstate highway projects totalling 400 millions.

Wade issued the state ment as Rep. Albert W. Johnson, GOP floor leader, pledged Democratic representation on a proposed 10-man legislative commission to investigate Highway Department operations.

Opposes $100,000 Fund
Johnson said he expected the Legislature would vote the probe within two weeks but will cut back a $100,000 appropriation listed in the measure to finance the probe.

The $100,000 figure would be the highest ever authorized for a legislative investigation.

In another development, Sen. John T. Sant (R-Lehigh) reported that Arthur L. Wiesenberger, former deputy secretary and chief engineer of the department, had said the "entire state road program is in jeopardy."

Van Sant said Wiesenberger gave the condition of the department as his reason for resigning last fall.

The Lehigh County lawmaker said Wiesenberger agreed with a story published last weekend in a Pittsburgh newspaper that "only a radical and immediate reformation from top to bottom will save the state highway system from chaos."

Van Sant said Wiesenberger's views appeared in the Allentown Morning Call Monday.

ASK STATE PACT ON OIL AND GAS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Leader's Commission on Governmental Reorganization urged the Legislature today to take steps for an agreement with New York, Ohio and West Virginia to unify laws governing extraction of oil and gas.

The commission, headed by Maj. Gen. Anthony J. Drexel Biddle Jr., reported that Pennsylvania is now the only state with significant oil and gas production still operating under the common law of capture.

"Until the law is changed," the report said, "there is no adequate incentive to induce operators to attempt to develop oil and gas fields in Pennsylvania."

Other commendations:
1. Create a Natural Resources Advisory Council to engage in research and to make policy recommendations concerning fully integrated natural resources program. For administrative purposes, the council would be attached to the state planning board.

2. Abolish the State Forest Commission and the Flood Control Commission. The report said the respective activities were duplicated by other setups in the Department of Forests and Waters and the State Civil Defense Council.

3. Place the state park boards in an advisory capacity and give full responsibility for the parks program to appropriate central operating agencies.

A PICKPOCKET FACES TOMORROW

Anonymous
Off and on for almost 40 years I made my living by picking pockets, stealing. I spent three terms in prison.

But about 15 years ago, my life began imperceptibly to take a different turn. One person who influenced me was a lovely widow lady, who is still my friend and a loyal one.

On Sundays I'd wait for her outside church. Occasionally she would say it would be nice if I went in with her, but she didn't press me. She said she prayed for me.

Eight years ago I traveled 1,500 miles to be with my dying father. As he struggled hard for life, I tried desperately to find new doctors, a drug, or something that could help him. There was nothing to be done.

Eased His Pain
And then suddenly, as I sat beside his bed, I leaned over to my father and whispered:

"Try God. Ask God," I said. I don't know why I did it, but Dad looked at me for a long time, then folded his hands, and it seemed as though his pain eased. He died a few hours later.

A few years later I got a call, much delayed because I couldn't be located; now my mother was on the critical list.

I arrived too late. Too late even for the funeral. I went to the cemetery alone and just sat there thinking. I had not made her proud of me. She had never found out about me, but still I had not made her proud.

Saw Himself
I began to see then, for the first time, that I was a thief and a sneak and a felon; I was opposed to the rightness and goodness of life.

A couple of years later and another call from home. My sister, dangerously ill, had to have an operation. I knew it — I was losing my sister, too.

The surgeon met me outside her door, saying her recovery was in the hands of a higher power than his. Then he led me in. She was lying in bed clasping a rosary, with holy medals pinned on her gown. Her face was bright.

"It was inconsiderate of me," she said, "taking you away from your work. But I wanted to see you. I wanted to tell you that I'm going to be all right. And I wanted to ask you to help me."

Asked Him To Pray
She gave me a prayer to St. Anthony and medals, and she asked me to pray for her.

And I did. It was hard. I no longer knew how. But I prayed and my sister grew well.

I have not stopped praying since then. But I reserved for myself the right to make a living, and that by the only way I knew. I made a compromise with God, I thought, by giving a percentage of my "profits" to the needy. I was too much the "con man" to know that you don't make deals with God.

From that time on, mysterious, inexplicable things started happening. I seemed to be losing my touch. Frequently, just as I placed my fingers on a large roll of currency, it would slip from my grip. Or I'd get a wallet, and it would contain little or no money. I'd bet on a horse — I'm a fair gambler — but I'd lose.

Making No Money
I'd get back to my lodgings and find a letter from my sister beginning "Jesus, Mary, and Joseph" and telling me that she was praying for me. I'd see the widow, and she'd tell me she had stopped at a church to pray for me.

This continued, and I was making no money. I began to blame those two women and almost curse their prayers. They were praying me out of business!

Desperate, I wandered into crowds full of detectives, something no smart pickpocket would ever do. Suddenly I would think I heard a soft voice behind, and when I'd turn to look, I'd spot some detectives before they spotted me, and I'd be able to walk away. It was as though some strange power were guiding me.

Then, one day I lifted a fat wallet. When I opened it, I was stunned.

A Picture
There in my hand was the most beautiful picture of Christ I had ever seen. His arms were outstretched, and his face was full of mercy and compassion. I looked at it unbelievably, and I started to mumble, over and over:

"Jesus, have mercy on me a sinner!"

I went to my room, and for the first time, I felt it all — the worth-lessness of my life, the pain I had caused others. There in the quiet I prayed aloud:

"O God, let Thy will be done, not mine. Make me a better man. Give me strength to follow Thy guidance. Let me be Thy humble servant and serve Thee well."

When I got up, my first act was to mail that wallet with its contents back to its owner.

Looking For Work
That was one month before the end of 1954. The Christmas season, with its enormous temptations, came and went. I did not steal. I have not stolen since.

Today, I am still looking for work, living off borrowed money. It is not easy for a man my age with a long prison record and no gainful work behind him. I cannot be in crowds without the police picking me up and taking me off to a line-up of suspected criminals. It will take time for them to understand, if ever they do.

I am praying for work. I am not looking for sympathy or charity. And I write this now because I feel I must, because I want to tell people the power of prayer, and because I want to be forgiven. I know that this is possible because Jesus forgave Dismas, the thief on the cross.

TOMORROW — Herman Wouk, author of "The Caine Mutiny" and "Marjorie Morningstar," tells why he believes faith in God is the

PUC ORDERS GAS REFUNDS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Manufacturers Light and Heat Co. of Pittsburgh has been ordered by the Public Utility Commission to make refunds to approximately 230,000 natural gas consumers. The amount is about $400,000.

The PUC, following a State Supreme Court order, told Manufacturers to make the refunds for the period between September, 1954, and December, 1955.

The court had ruled that an increase in rates estimated at $2,996,000 during that period had included overcharges. The company lost an appeal to the Supreme Court.

The PUC said the refunds were to be made on May bills and that the company was to file a statement by July showing the actual amount paid back with interest.

It left it to the company to determine the amounts of individual refunds.

Many Kinds Of Shellfish, Shrimp, Oysters, Lobsters, Available In Most Budgets

By CATHERINE B. LOVE
Not too long ago, shellfish was considered a luxury item. Some shellfish such as lobster are still in this class. With present day transportation and new freezing techniques many kinds of shellfish fit more readily into our budgets.

As a result of modern fishing and marketing methods, shrimp are available — fresh, frozen, cooked, and canned in all parts of the country.

Shrimp are customarily sold according to size or grade based on number of "heads off" shrimp to the pound. The count or number may be described as jumbo, large, medium and small.

Largest size, 15 or fewer shrimp per pound, cost the most, less time to peel and devein.

Smallest size 60 or more, cost less, longer time to prepare.

All sizes have the same fine flavor and food value.

One pound fresh or frozen shelled shrimp makes three servings.

Breaded shrimp has been peeled, cleaned, breaded and ready to fry.

Shrimp are sold by the pound and may be purchased either in the shell, or peeled and ready to use.

Canned shrimp are available in 4½-5 oz. cans, either packed in brine or dry.

Cocktail Sauce
¾ cup chili sauce or catsup
3 tbsps lemon juice
2 tbsps, minced celery
2 tbsps, peppered horseradish
¼ tsp. salt
Few drops tabasco sauce
Dash pepper

Combine ingredients. Serve on any seafood cocktail. To vary, add minced onion or pickle relish.

Lobsters
New England lobsters are available in Pennsylvania either live, frozen or cooked. These are found only in the larger stores. Most commonly found on our markets are the frozen imported rock or spring lobster tails from So. Africa and the Gulf of Mexico. All are luxury items. The simplest and favorite ways of preparing lobster are broiling and boiling.

To buy: Rock Lobster tails are sold quickly frozen — wrapped individually or 2 to a carton. Each lobster tail weighs ¼ to ½ lb.; the ½ lb. size makes a generous serving.

To thaw: Unwrap; let stand at room temperature just until thawed.

Rock lobster meat comes canned and can be used in cooked dishes, cocktails and salads.

Broiled Lobster Tail
Thaw and cut away underside of shell. Grasp tail in both hands and bend it backward toward shell side to crack and prevent curling.

Broil tails, with shell side up for 5 minutes about 5 inches below broiler. Turn; spread with butter; broil 6-9 minutes. Serve with melted butter.

Oysters have a special appeal because of the ease with which they are prepared. No waste from trimmings, entirely edible, and easy to serve. They can be served either raw on the half shell, as a cocktail, or cooked in a variety of ways such as stews, chowder, baked, broiled, fried, creamed scalloped or combination dishes and in stuffing for poultry. To keep the delicate distinctive flavor of oysters, cook just enough to heat through and leave them plump and tender.

In the shell — Sold by the dozen and must be alive when purchased. Shell must be tightly closed. Gaping shells that do not close indicate that the oysters are dead and no longer usable. Shell oysters stored at 40 degrees F. in refrigerator will keep quite a while.

Shucked — Shelled and sold by the pint or quart. Should be plump, have a natural creamy color, with clear liquid and no shell particles. Should be refrigerated both in the market and at home. Under these conditions, will remain fresh for 7 to 10 days.

Canned — Packed on the Atlantic and Gulf Coasts in No. 1 — 7½ oz. cans. Packed on the Pacific Coast in 5 or 8 oz. cans. Drained weight.

When you buy remember: Oysters are sold on a size basis with the smallest less expensive. "Select" oyster is a medium sized oyster. "Standard" oyster is a smaller sized oyster. For 6 persons — allow three dozen shell or one quart of shucked, or 2 No. 1 cans of oysters.

Scalloped Oysters
½ cup bread crumbs
1 cup cracker crumbs
¼ cup melted butter
1 pint oysters, drained
Salt and pepper
4 tbsps oyster liquor
2 cups milk or cream
Mix crumbs and stir in butter. Put a thin layer of crumbs in greased shallow baking dish; cover with oysters and season with salt and pepper. Add half of liquor and milk. Repeat and cover with remaining crumbs. Bake 20 minutes at 400 degrees F. Serves 4.

Crabs
Crabs are one of our popular shellfish because of their tender meat and distinctive flavor.

Available in market forms—live; cooked in the shell; cooked and frozen; fresh cooked meat; and canned meat.

Live hardshell crabs sold near point of capture as they are difficult to ship long distances.

Live soft shell crabs are shipped

York Springs CHURCH TO BURN NOTE ON SUNDAY

In connection with the regular worship service at the Chestnut Grove Lutheran church this Sunday, there will be a note burning to mark completion of payment of a debt created three years ago by the placing of a basement beneath the church for Sunday School purposes.

The speaker will be the Rev. Dr. Martin Tozer, superintendent of Home Missions and Rural Church Work in the Central Pennsylvania Synod of the United Lutheran Church in America.

A team of three young men representing the Synodical Lutheran League of the Central Pennsylvania Synod will be in the churches of the York Springs Lutheran Parish Sunday to assist with the youth program of the churches.

These men will speak a few minutes in each of the Sunday Schools in the morning and then will meet with the young people of the parish at 2 p.m. in the York Springs Church. The concluding session will follow a fellowship supper hour at 6:30 p.m. The young men are: John Cochran, Altoona; Gerald Krum, Boonshurg; and Ronad Shonk, Manheim.

Mrs. R. L. Pittenturf, chairman of the Salvation Army Unit of York Springs and surrounding area, reports she received $342.46 during the current Salvation Army Fund drive. The committee wishes to thank all who responded with contributions.

Leaves Hospital
Aneurin (Skinny) Davis was removed in the York Springs ambulance from the Hanover Hospital, where he had been a patient for almost five weeks following a stroke, to Gettysburg last Friday. He is slowly recovering and is regaining use of his right arm.

Mrs. Ethel Smith was brought home from the Polyclinic Hospital in the York Springs ambulance on Saturday. She is confined to her bed at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold King announced the birth of a daughter on Monday at the Carlisle Hospital.

The second in a series of mid-week Lenten services will be held in the York Springs Methodist Church this evening at 7:45 o'clock. This is a series of Bible study and devotions. The public is welcome.

great distances but require special care.

Soft-shelled crabs have just shed their hard outer shell. They are sold cleaned and ready for cooking, every part is edible. Are best fried in deep fat.

Hard-shell crabs are just what the name implies with the edible part inside the shell.

Both fresh soft and hard shell crabs should be alive and kicking at the time of cooking.

Fresh cooked meat of crabs is the most common market form. Used mostly for cocktails, salads, and cakes.

Clams
Closed up like a clam — That's what the shell of a fresh one should be. If the shell is gaping, the clam is no longer good. Clams are sold in the shell or "shucked."

Steamed Clams
Scrub about one quart soft shelled clams per person. Place in kettle with ½ cup water for every 4 quarts clams. Cover, steam till shells just open.

Serve in soup dishes with a small cup of melted butter and lemon juice. Also serve cups of remaining broth, strained. To eat, dip clams in broth, then in butter. Serve with hot garlic bread and napkins or bibs.

Prospect Of Budget Cuts Revives Tax Reduction Talk

By B. L. LIVINGSTONE
WASHINGTON (AP) — The prospect of budget cuts has revived talk in Congress of income tax reduction.

Influential House leaders took notice of it by stating privately that reduction of government spending by as much as three or four billion dollars might start a stampede for general tax relief.

But the strong possibility remained that even if the budget is cut substantially, tax cuts would be delayed until next year when Congress members could learn the actual size of a surplus, rather than an estimate of it.

Expect Surplus
President Eisenhower's budget estimates show an anticipated surplus of $1,700,000,000 for this fiscal year ending June 30, and $1,800,000,000 for fiscal 1958.

If the President's 1958 spending budget of $1,800,000,000 is cut by three billion dollars, as some Appropriations Committee members say can be done, the government would start its new business year next July 1 with a prospect surplus of nearly five billion dollars.

Some leaders feel that such a situation might make it impossible to head off demands for general tax relief.

Hope For Taxpayer
Thus far, Capitol Hill has been in general agreement with the Eisenhower administration that tax reduction is "out" because of its inflationary aspects at a time when curbs are being placed on credit expansion. The administration has contended also that any surplus should go toward reducing the national debt.

Rep. Mills (D-Ark), influential member of the tax-writing Ways and Means Committee who frequently reflects the attitude of House leaders, said:

"If we can create three or four billion dollars of surplus through reduction of expenditures, I would want the American taxpayer to enjoy a part of that reduction."

Other Views
Rep. McCarthy (D-Minn), also a member of the committee, said in response to a reporter's questions that in the event of a large surplus Congress might have to cut taxes "for the sake of the economy."

He said "a surplus of $1,800,000,000 probably would be about all the economy could carry."

Rep. Eberhart (D-Pa), another committee member, predicted that a Ways and Means will recommend later this session a reduction in federal excise (sales) taxes of about 900 million dollars.

Rep. Reed of New York, the senior Republican on the Ways and Means Committee, told a re-

NEW ROCKET FUEL TESTED

WASHINGTON (AP) — A big new rocket engine, using solid instead of hard-to-handle liquid fuel for powering an intermediate range ballistic missile, has been developed and put under test.

This was disclosed Wednesday in a routine annual report to stockholders by the General Tire Co., which seemed to contain considerably more information about some weapons than has been announced by the Defense Department. The report said the new rocket motor went into its testing stage last October.

The motor was designed by the company's Aerojet-General Corp. and, said the report, is "the largest solid propellant power plant ever used in any ballistic missile."

The motor was developed for the Jupiter IRBM, the company reports.

However, Army experts told a newsman that Jupiter IRBM program does not now include use of a solid instead of liquid fuel. This appeared to indicate the new porter that he didn't expect the House to vote tax reduction until 1958, an election year.

THREE KILLED IN LAB BLAST

LINDEN, N.J. (AP) — An explosion in a vitamin laboratory killed 3 men and injured 11 others early Wednesday at the Merck and Co. pharmaceutical plant.

The men were all working in the first floor of a three-story brick building when flammable solvents used to make vitamin A apparently ignited, a company spokesman said.

Fire broke out briefly but was put out.

The dead were identified as: Walter Green; Ed Cenzrowski and Edward L. Mnlisch.

Leo Bitsch was seriously injured. He was taken to the Rahway hospital.

Ten other workers in the laboratory were treated for minor injuries at the plant dispensary.

The blast did extensive damage to the first floor of the building.

One worker only 25 feet from the blast escaped unharmed.

ODDS AGAINST REQUESTS FOR CREDIT POWERS

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Speculation sharpened today on whether President Eisenhower will ask Congress for standby powers to regulate consumer installment credit.

The odds seemed to be against it, for interest has been lukewarm lately. But it was spotlighted by the issuance yesterday of a massive study prepared at Eisenhower's request by the staff of the Federal Reserve Board.

The researchers found that easy-payment buying of autos and consumer goods tends to be unruly. "The major influence," they said, "has been to add fuel to booms; it has less often been an aggravating factor during recessions."

Not Like 1929

The FRB staff found that the credit structure, though carrying a record 3 1/2 billion dollars of installment debt, is less likely than in 1929 to collapse during a recession into defaults, foreclosures and repossessions. It nevertheless cautioned:

"The possibility of an episode of drastic and spiraling liquidation should not be dismissed."

The report is neutral on standby controls; it presents various conflicting views in its five volumes and 1,619 pages. The reserve board itself has taken no position though it presumably would administer any controls voted, as it does the margin buying of stock on the exchanges.

Back Seat Now

Eisenhower asked Congress 14 months ago to "consider" standby controls. That was just after the 1955 auto credit binge, when total soared by $ 1/2 billion dollars.

The rate of rise abated last year without damage, and the issue has taken a back seat. Businessmen who have visited Eisenhower recently said he shows far less concern. Neither has any strong movement for controls developed in Congress.

Some families evidently use installment credit as a form of saving, it was indicated; they save their liquid assets and buy goods on installments. The report added:

"It has become respectable to be a debtor, and the desire to own a home 'free and clear' is no

Zhukov Boasts Of Red Destruction

LONDON (AP)—Russia's defense minister says any major new war would leave no hiding place and that the United States would not "be able, as formerly, to sit it out over the ocean and avoid destruction and deadly blows."

Quoted by Moscow radio Wednesday, Marshal Georgi Zhukov warned that Russia would use atomic and hydrogen bombs as its "main striking force" if such a conflict broke out.

"There is no place in the world where the aggressor could find shelter. The Soviet air force is able to strike shattering blows at any enemy no matter where he is or where he is hiding," he said.

STATE EXTENDS LICENSING BY HEALTH BUREAU

As a result of a recent opinion from the Department of Justice, the restaurant licensing program of the State Department of Health will henceforth apply to private clubs, hospitals, industrial-plant restaurants, camps, and tourist homes as well as to other public eating and drinking establishments, it was announced Wednesday.

Dr. Berwyn P. Mattison, state secretary of health, said that by April 1, 1957, State Health Department licenses must be obtained by establishments of this type if they are operating in areas receiving direct service from the State Health Department.

The announcement was made to clarify any uncertainties as to what types of public eating and drinking establishments are under existing food service licensing regulations of the State.

Need License To Operate
Karl M. Mason, director of the Bureau of Environmental Health Services, explained that establishments of the type described, if within the jurisdiction of local health authorities, generally had been required in the past to have licenses to operate.

Clubs, hospitals, industrial-plant restaurants, camps, and tourist homes, in general, have been subject to local health regulations if they operate within the jurisdiction of county health departments, or of incorporated boroughs, municipalities, or first-class townships having local boards of health. Liquor Control Board regulations require a Health Department license before a liquor or beer license can be obtained.

The State Health Department's regulations and minimum standards for conduct and operation of public eating and drinking places apply equally to all types of public food-serving establishments in the state, and whether under local or state jurisdiction, Mr. Mason explained.

Will Enforce Regulations
Enforcement of these regulations will be the responsibility of local health authorities, or of the

The six, who are to be brought to Santiago, have been at liberty in the southern Chilean city of Punta Arenas since escaping Monday from Rio Gallegos prison in southern Argentina. They made a 150-mile automobile dash after fleeing the prison. Argentina sources said they bribed their way to freedom.

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—It's not what they say in the next few days but what they do afterwards that counts.

President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Macmillan met in Bermuda today. Eisenhower and former Prime Minister Eden met here 13 months ago.

At the end of the conference Eisenhower and Macmillan will issue a statement, just as Eisenhower and Eden did at the end of theirs.

Almost certainly it will stress American-British unity, just as Eisenhower and Eden said: "Conscious of the unity of our two countries . . ."

Feared Arab War

Ironically they went on to say that if anyone began a war in the Middle East, which was tense at the time, they'd consult on how to stop it.

That was said on Feb. 1, 1956, when Eisenhower and Eden were thinking of the only kind of war which seemed possible at the time: an Arab-Israeli war.

But within 10 months Britain, France and Israel began the war with their invasion of Egypt, and American-British unity was literally shot to pieces.

Instead of conferring with Britain on how to stop somebody else's shooting, this country joined the United Nations in demanding that Britain, France and Israel stop.

The invasion of Egypt and the American stand against its friends caused a split between this country and Britain which hasn't been healed yet.

Face Different Task

Trying to heal it will be the primary task confronting Eisenhower and Macmillan.

But how did the split happen? What had happened between last February and last fall to cause Britain, France and Israel to begin a war without even telling this country?

Those three countries got fed up with the leadership — or lack of leadership — of Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles in the Middle East.

They had sat back and taken no strong, positive leadership in trying to chill Egyptian President Nasser, who had seized the Suez Canal.

The same lack of American leadership in the Middle East — far more tense now than when Eden was here — could show up again in the same or another form.

So while Eisenhower and Macmillan may stand with their arms around each other's shoulders to face the world at Bermuda, the real nature of American-British relations will depend on events in the months ahead.

For the Middle East will provide Eisenhower and Macmillan with the most important problem they'll have to talk about, next to restoring some kind of unity.

If the United States has any real plan for bringing peace to the Middle East — which may mean taking a strong stand against Nasser and perhaps alienating much of the Arab world — neither Eisenhower nor Dulles has revealed it.

HARRISBURG (AP)—House committee approval has been given a bill to restore Grame Park, a historical site in Montgomery County and the residence of a colonial lieutenant governor.

The measure, approved yesterday, would appropriate $25,000 to the State Historical and Museum Commission to maintain the park the next two years. It is situated in Horsham Twp. and was the home of Sir William Keith.

CALL STUDENT SEX DEVIATE

DENVER (AP)—A state psychiatrist on Tuesday described as a sex deviate a 19-year-old high school student accused of assaulting and robbing a pretty model on a Denver street last Nov. 7.

Dr. Robert Cohen said Culver Jay Murray is "not necessarily sick in mind."

The doctor testified as a state witness at Murray's sanity hearing. Murray has pleaded innocent by reason of insanity to multiple charges stemming from the beating of Nancy Snyder, 30, formerly of Jenkintown, Pa.

Miss Snyder suffered a fractured skull when she was hurled to the sidewalk. She since has recovered. Dr. Cohen said Murray's police and medical history shows approximately 25 assaults or molestations of women.

He said the youth was sentenced in 1952 to the state industrial school at Golden, Colo., for attacking a woman. He later was transferred to the state hospital in Pueblo and was released last June.

Murray is charged with robbery and assaulting to rob.

COUNSEL SAYS 3 WITNESSES DISCUSSED CASE

By JAMES F. KING
LONDON (AP) — Counsel for Dr. John Bodkin Adams Wednesday accused three of the prosecution's star witnesses in the "Eastbourne widow" murder trial of discussing their evidence on the way to court Wednesday morning in violation of the judge's warning.

One admitted under cross-examination that during the conversation the remark was made, "Don't say that or you will get me into trouble."

Chief defense attorney Geoffrey Lawrence charged that three nurses who are testifying for the Crown against the 58-year-old doctor took the same train to court and talked about the case.

Defendant is Confident
The nurse had cared for Mrs. Edith Alice Morrell, the wealthy 81-year-old widow the doctor is accused of poisoning in 1950 to benefit from her will. Her body was cremated and her ashes scattered over the English Channel.

The third day of the trial saw the portly doctor still looking supremely confident in the dock at historic Old Bailey. And since last night he was assured that, even if convicted, he will not hang.

The House of Lords Tuesday night gave final passage to the bill previously approved by the House of Commons to limit the death penalty to certain types of murder. The Queen's signature, an automatic step, will make it law.

Some Exempt From Gallows
Poisoners now are exempt from the gallows. Murders still punishable by hanging include shooting, killing of police or prison officers, killing during attempts at theft and killing while resisting or avoiding arrest.

The story of the conversation on the way to court was drawn from the day's first witnesses, nurse Annie Mason-Ellis. The red-

URGES HUGE AID PROGRAM

WASHINGTON (AP) — A foreign affairs expert has recommended that congress adopt a 10-year 10-billion-dollar program of foreign economic development. Max F. Millikan, director of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, told a Senate committee studying foreign aid that 80 per cent of the program should be devoted to loans, the remainder in outright grants.

He was the first witness at the committee, headed by Sen. Green (D-R-I) opened the first of a series of hearings intended to guide the Senate in its consideration of the administration's $4,400,000,000 foreign aid program for the fiscal year starting July 1.

The current study, centering on the results and prospects of military and economic aid abroad, is expected to last at least three weeks.

Later hearings will go into topics ranging from the exclusion of American newsmen from Red China to the pay of U.S. Information Agency employees around the world.

UN-KOSHER DOG SELECTED FOR PART IN MOVIE

By JAMES BACON
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — A little un-kosher dog with a big kosher appetite — only days removed from execution in a dog pound — today is costarred in a movie with Frank Sinatra, Kim Novak and Rita Hayworth.

It's Hollywood's greatest Cinderella story since Marilyn Monroe and the most unique talent search since Scarlett O'Hara. Snuffy, a cairn terrier, ate himself into a $500-a-week contract to costar with the famous trio in the upcoming movie version of "Pal Joey."

The script calls for a dog to play Sinatra's pet and eat the same type of kosher food that he does.

Had Canine Audition
Sinatra, director George Sidney and producer Fred Kohlmar were judges at a canine audition held Tuesday night at Nate 'n' Al's Elite Kosher Delicatessen in Beverly Hills.

Nine dogs made the finals of the audition, which stems from an Associated Press story of a few weeks ago. Soon after the story appeared, more than 5,000 letters, plus hundreds of phone calls from such places as New York, Tokyo, London, Paris and South America deluged Columbia Pictures.

Bert Morse, a chief inspector for the Los Angeles city dog pound, from Arcadia, Calif., is Snuffy's owner. He said he had read of the search for a bagel beagle and decided to enter Snuffy. The dog, already nine days in the pound, would have been put to sleep the next day.

Now he is a movie star with a cast that even Rin Tin Tin or Lassie never rated.

As flash bulbs popped from a small army of photographers Snuffy was crowned with a giant

NO FOUL PLAY IN FATAL CRASH

MANILA (AP) — Philippine investigators have ruled out the possibility that sabotage caused the plane crash in which Philippine President Ramon Magsaysay died.

Col. Ricardo Papa, deputy constabular chief, said evidence gathered on Sunday's Cebu Island crash indicated no foul play was involved.

The investigators announced the crash which killed 26 persons was not preceded by an explosion as the sole survivor, newsman Nestor Mata, originally had reported.

Nearly 200,000 Filipinos kept a mourning vigil around Malacanang Palace and thousands filed past lying in state inside the palace until the funeral Friday. Floral tributes included a wreath from President Eisenhower.

TRAFFIC POWER GIVEN POLICE

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The State Superior Court has ruled that a police officer can change the traffic flow at any time in an effort to relieve heavy or dangerous travel conditions.

David M. Harrison of Pittsburgh had appealed fines of the Allegheny County Court for violations of the Pennsylvania Motor Vehicle Code. He had been convicted of failing to obey the signals or directions of traffic policemen on two occasions.

President Judge Chester H. Rhodes wrote the majority decision which stated that the Legislature "has authorized the municipalities to regulate traffic within their jurisdiction, and one of the means specifically permitted is the use of peace or police officers."

It was Hollywood at its publicity best.

GIRL SCOUTS PLAN CAMPING

There was a display in the York Springs library window prepared by Joanne Flickinger, June Griest and Kay May to show the Girl Scout troops' activities this year in the 11 program fields. Joanne Flickinger is now helping the 13 Brownies fly-up with their Tenderfoot rank.

A Court of Honor meeting was held recently at the home of Mrs. Clyde Kennedy when the six patrol leaders and assistants made plans to finish badges before Court of Awards, June 2. They discussed camping possibilities for this summer and made plans to invite the Brownies for an afternoon hike and picnic supper on May 18.

At a recent meeting the Fifth grade girls learned 25 garden flowers and welcomed a new Scout, Sarah Moore. Sixth grade girls finished the drapes at the Scout cabin and cleaned house. Seventh graders worked on a play at Mrs. Clyde Kennedy's house.

Plan Day Camp
The York Springs Girl Scout Committee met at the Scout cabin with Mrs. Richard Myers in charge. It was announced that a local group is having a skating party March 28 for a benefit for the local Girl and Boy Scouts. Brownie leader, Mrs. Albert Townsend, asked for help in taking her troop to Hershey Chocolate factory.

Day Camp for York Springs girls will be June 24 to 28 at Conewago. Troop 19 will camp at Happy Valley July 29-30-31. Members were invited.

Harrison appealed action of police who had prohibited him from making right turns, which ordinarily would have been allowed, because of heavy traffic conditions. He argued that local authorities had no power to change traffic signals or arrangements without prior notice and without posting signs.

to go to the leadership camping weekend, April 27-28. Ways and means for the Court of Awards were planned.

Miss Mary Peters is being sent by the Adams County Girl Scout Council to Harrisburg March 25 to 29 for the volunteer training of leaders course. Recent activities included Mrs. Amos Meyers helping six girls earn a badge by teaching them to cook a Chinese meal. Twenty-six girls of Troop 19 in uniforms and red ties conducted the Juliette Low ceremony for the Adams County Girl Scouts at the rally in Gettysburg, Saturday, March 9. Jean Kay Drake, Dorene Highlands and Sandy Weigle led the group in the ceremony. Other girls helping were: Susan Cashman, Gloria DeHaven, Shirley Metzger, Bonnie Schrade, Ruthanna Stambaugh, Roxie Thomas, Bonnie Bower, Susan Bricker, Vicki Glatfelter, Linda Hinkle, Charlotte Leer, Carol Shook, Cheryl Snyder, Judy Trostle, Cynthia Zepp, Karen DeHaven, Patsy Eppelman, Ruth Hinkle, Ellen Lory, Stella May, Dorale Starnier, Helen Thomas, Darlene Wonders.

Discuss Cub Program
A citizens' committee of interested parents requested the Boy Scouts of America to supply them with the details of organizing a Cub Pack in York Springs and Stanley Rogers, executive director of the Black Walnut District, and William Kirchner of the Organization-Extension Service were the principal speakers at a recent meeting at the Scout cabin.

A promotional committee was elected as follows: Chairman James Hardy, Harry Guise, Roger Smith, Melvin S. Worley, Harrison Parr, Wayne Warren, James Reeve, John D. Parr, M. E. Weiser and Ray Reinecker. The committee has set three meeting dates. Parents interested in organizing this cub pack are requested to attend these meetings. Meetings are scheduled for April 26, May 3 and May 10 at 7:30 p.m. Boys eight years to 10 years, inclusive, are eligible but must be enrolled by their parents at the meetings.

Mrs. Donald Kemper was taken to the Warner Hospital on Tuesday evening in the York Springs ambulance.

SAY MAGSAYSAY EXPECTED HIS ENEMIES TO TRY ASSASSINATION

NEW YORK (AP) — Eight days before Philippine President Ramon Magsaysay died in a plane crash, he expressed belief political enemies were set on killing him, it was reported Wednesday.

In a dispatch from Manila by Walker Stone, editor in chief of Scripps - Howard newspapers, Magsaysay was quoted as saying concerning his forthcoming bid for re-election:

"They're going to try to bump me off in this campaign. They know they can't win if I live." Stone wrote that he talked with the Philippine President March 1 at Malacanang Palace in Manila in what may have been Magsaysay's last interview with a foreign correspondent before he was killed.

Would Win If He Lived
"He was extremely confident of re-election in November," the dispatch said. "But he voiced one qualification, the possibility of assassination."

"What he said then may become a footnote of history—and a major political issue if investigation proves his plane was sabotaged."

Magsaysay died four days ago in a plane crash on a mountain side in a remote section of Cebu Island.

Investigations are under way, but no evidence of sabotage so far has been reported.

TODAY'S STYLES RAISE VARIOUS BEAUTY QUERIES

By VIVIAN BROWN

Beauty problems pop up with the season. It makes a big difference to heavy legged girls if new styles call for shorter skirts; to thick-waisted types if the new silhouette calls for a slender midriff; to skinny types if any curvaceous year.

Questions go like this: . . . Q. I am tall and heavy. I like to wear high heels, but the new slim high heels will definitely make my ankles look heavy and will not support my weight. Why don't manufacturers consider all aspects of a style before they put it in effect? First thing you know, all heels will go high and then what will happen to me?

A. There are so many women who cannot wear too-high heels that there will always be other heel heights available. Let's hope you do not consider flat shoes because nothing looks worse on a tall stocky build. There are good medium-heel heights that are very flattering to legs and ankles of large proportions.

Q. Now that hair is being pulled up again at the back of the head I have my old problem of how to cope with a bad hairline.

A. Pull the hair back and fasten it with a chignon that will cover the area you consider unattractive. Chignons of all sizes are available. Have one designed for you with the purpose you mention in mind.

Q. Up until now I have been able to conceal the "spare tire" that has been growing around my middle. Now all the new dresses I see emphasize a slim waistline. Is there any quick way to erase this excess bulge?

A. One woman with such a problem solved it this way: She bought a longer line girdle that covered that area, keeping it under control while she tried to reduce. She ate light lunches, walked briskly for one-half hour every day and did ordinary bend-down, hand-to-toe exercises (no bent knees please). She did manage to erase the roll that way.

Q. There a big rumor afoot that everybody will have to be red-haired to make the grade socially this season. Everybody I know is dyeing her hair. Do you think it is necessary? I am 17 years old.

A. Certainly not. The new vogue for red hair is fine for girls over 30, especially those with graying hair, but it would be ridiculous for a young girl with healthy hair of a true color to take on an artificial hue.

Q. Will eyes be as made-up as usual? I have blue-green eyes and look especially good when my eyes are made up. Somebody told me that eye makeup is going out of style for daytime wear.

A. Eyes are still being made up with eyeliner and at the corner of the eye. This year, however, you're not supposed to be obvious with your eye makeup. The deft touch will accomplish the same big-eyed look. Use light feather strokes in applying the liner around your lids. Instead of the heavy line.

PHILADELPHIA (P)—The Pennsylvania Railroad earned profits of more than $1½ million dollars in 1956, despite a month-long steel strike and higher costs.

PRR President James M. Symes, in the railroad's annual statement issued Tuesday, said the line earned $41,545,435 in 1956, compared with $41,183,533 in 1955. Earnings per share for 1956 were $3.15 compared with $3.12 the previous year.

BOY GUEST AT AIR STATION

WILLOW GROVE, Pa. (P)—A nine-year-old boy had it all his own way at the big Naval Air Station here the other day, and it seemed to him that all the brass in the service was trying to make him feel important.

He thought no more than the truth, for that's exactly why Capt. W. H. McClure, commandant, invited Barry Cleaver, pert and eager little Philadelphia, to be the station's guest. And to give the boy the ultimate thrill, the fliers put into the records that he was a fledgling airman "attached" to Willow Grove for the day.

The memorable experience came about through a letter Barry wrote to Capt. McClure, saying: "Some day I would like to be one of your airmen when I grow up. May I visit your airport on my birthday. I will be nine."

"We would be honored and proud to have you," the captain replied. The importance of the visit, in the commandant's mind, was underscored by his arrangement to provide Barry with an escort to the station.

PASS BILL ON ATTACHING PAY

HARRISBURG (P)—A bill providing a 30-day period before a court could attach the wages of a husband for non-support was approved by the House on Tuesday and returned to the senate for action on an amendment. The vote was 138-64.

Other bills approved would: Give municipalities three years to comply with the 1937 permanent voter registration act requiring lists of registered voters arranged by street and house number or alphabetically (201-1, to Senate).

Allow the placing of poison in a manner approved by the agriculture secretary to kill meadow or orchard crops if it is inaccessible to game or domestic animals and birds (201-1, to Senate).

Give seniority rights to teachers in schools for the mentally retarded and physically handicapped operated by the Health and Welfare Department (202-0, to Senate).

MAMIE MIGHT GIVE BALL GOWN TO INSTITUTION

WASHINGTON (P)—Even if Mamie Eisenhower decides to give her new 1957 inaugural ball gown to the Smithsonian Institution, her plaster of Paris image in the First Ladies Hall probably will wear the pink 1953 creation another four years. Ordinarily the gowns of White House ladies are not added to the famous collection until after the retirement of the president in whose administration they were worn. Mamie's first inaugural gown was an exception, being added to the group of 36 in 1955 in time for the opening of the newly remodeled corridor with its eight glass-enclosed period rooms wherein the figures are arranged according to eras. Mamie herself pulled the lighting cord, for the ceremonies. She also presented the Smithsonian with her little jeweled evening bag and long pink gloves. Incidentally, her figure is the only one in the hall to wear long gloves. Few changes have been made in the collection since it was started in 1909. Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt sent along her beautiful third inaugural ball gown of 1941, a queenly creation of eggshell satin embroidered in pearls and with a double train, to replace a less elaborate blue lace gown worn at the first in 1933. A white satin brocade evening gown with shoulder train worn by Mrs. Calvin Coolidge during her husband's administration made its appearance in the collection in June of 1930, but was replaced with the ungainly, sack-like creation of rose chiffon velvet currently on display. Truman Gowns Though Mrs. Frank Klapthor, associate curator of the Division of Civil History, says the Smithsonian never makes any requests, nor any restrictions, there are wistful whisperings that Bess Truman will break down and give the handsome black panne velvet gown, she wore for the inaugural festivities in 1949 to replace the gown of imported French pearl gray satin and dull silver lame she wore to the inaugural afternoon reception which now is on display.

Not all the gowns in the collection are inaugural gowns nor are they all gowns worn by wives of presidents. The first inaugural dress to appear in the group was that worn by Mrs. Andrew Jackson Donelson, niece of President Andrew Jackson, and presented to her by him. Included in the collection is a colonial gown of salmon pin taffeta hand-painted with American flowers and insects worn by Martha Washington. Washington pitcher Camilo Pascual had a 0-7 record against the New York Yankees in 1956.

WILSON ASKED TO MAKE MORE DEFENSE CUTS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) called on Secretary of Defense Wilson today to expand and extend on a worldwide basis a proposed 12 per cent cut in defense department office workers in the Washington area.

Sens. Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) and Mansfield (D-Mont.) joined Byrd in applauding Wilson's announcement Tuesday that he had told the Army, Navy and Air Force to eliminate 6,414 military and civilian jobs here in the year beginning July 1.

Wilson said he will order similar cuts in many defense headquarters—but not in combat units—at home and abroad. Byrd said this was "encouraging" but he urged Wilson to order across the board cuts at American installations all around the world.

Good Budget Saving
"There would be a quite substantial budget saving if this could be made to apply to the entire defense establishment," Byrd said. "The federal government's annual civilian payroll runs about 10 billion dollars and roughly half of it is for the Defense Department."

Wilson told a news conference Tuesday he was having "some difficulty" in keeping current defense spending within scheduled limits and "we will have a lot of work to do" to hold down costs in the new fiscal year beginning July 1.

Wilson said the defense manpower cutback he plans would be confined to administrative and office workers and would be taken care of by the natural turnover in employment.

Asks Others To Follow
Hickenlooper said he thinks it would be "a good thing if other department heads follow Secretary Wilson's example."

Mansfield, the assistant Democratic leader, said that Wilson was "making a dent" by taking the initiative in a drive to cut government expenses.

"With him," Mansfield said, "economy seems a matter of deeds and not just words."

DEATHS

NEW YORK (AP)—Burton Rascoe, 64, editor on several of the nation's leading newspapers and magazines and one of the first critics to write admiringly of the works of such then-unknowns as Ring Lardner, Sherwood Anderson, H. L. Mencken, Edgar Lee Masters, Carl Sandburg, Ben Hecht and Willa Cather, died on Tuesday. He was born in Fulton, Ky.

The 1918 Dartmouth College basketball team lost 26 straight games.

Hungarian Lauds Soviet Friendship

MOSCOW (AP) — Hungarian Premier Janos Kadar arrived in Moscow Wednesday and hailed the Soviet Union as his country's "truest and most dependable friend."

The Hungarian official and his party were flown here in a Soviet jet airliner for 10 days of "ideological and economic" negotiations with the Kremlin.

On hand to greet the visitors at icy, flag-decorated Vnukovo Airport were Soviet Premier Bulganin, Communist party chief Nikita Khrushchev, President Klementi Vorshilov, Deputy Premiers Georgi Malenkov, A. I. Mikoyan and Mikhail Suslov and other members of the Presidium.

Also present despite the 18-below-zero temperature were some 500 "spontaneous demonstrators" recruited for the occasion. Most Western ambassadors boycotted the welcome ceremony.

OFFER BILL TO CUT RETIREMENT TIME OF JUDGES

HARRISBURG (AP) — Legislation was introduced in the Senate Tuesday night to reduce to 20 years the eligibility requirement in Pennsylvania's retirement system for judges. It would double contributions in the first 10 years.

Judges now must participate in the retirement system for 25 years. Under the bill, contributions after 10 years would be at rates 1½ times those at present.

Retirement payments annually could run as high as 100 per cent of salary. Present law limits payments to 50 per cent.

The bill was submitted by Sens. Mahany (R-Crawford), Dent (D-Westmoreland) and Weiner (D-Phila.).

Under another Dent-Mahany measure, the salaries of top House and Senate employees would be increased as much as nearly 100 per cent.

Other Measures
Other new Senate bills would: Provide for certification of educational secretaries hired by school boards—Fleming and Kopriv (R-Allegheny).

Authorize district attorneys to petition courts for special investigation of widespread city or county public evils—Weiner (D-Phila.).

Create a commission on medical and legal investigations — Stiefel (D-Phila.), Sarraf (D-Allegheny), Chapman (R-Warren) Berger (R-Potter).

Establish 2.7 miles of state roadway in Jefferson County — Kromer (R-Jefferson).

Place under state highways system a stretch of roadway from Atglen to Christiansa—Harney (R-Chester).

Place under state highways system 5 miles of roadway in Hanover Twp., Luzerne County—Murray (D-Luzerne).

$300,000 FIRE IN BRICK PLANT

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—A blaze caused damage estimated at $300,000 Tuesday night in the brick formation plant and clay storage building of the Lancaster Brick Co.

Two firemen were injured seriously when a wall collapsed. Joel D. Neiss, 19, was detained at Lancaster General Hospital with chest and leg injuries, and Paul D. Swope Jr., 37, was admitted to St. Joseph's Hospital with back and shoulder injuries. Both are members of the Southern Manheim Twp. Fire Company.

The damage estimate was made by Fire Chief Samuel Herr of the Southern Manheim Twp. Fire Company, who was first at the scene.

Chief Herr said the cause of the spectacular fire could not be learned immediately.

The brick firm, one of the largest in eastern Pennsylvania, turns out eight million bricks annually.

MANY BILLS BEFORE HOUSE

HARRISBURG (P)—The House Wednesday considered proposed legislation to allow cities to annex land adjoining city boundaries by council action. It was introduced Tuesday by Reps. Gailey (D-York), Delong (R-Lehigh).

Other new bills would: Grant the Public Utility Commission jurisdiction over installation and maintenance of electric warning lights on the rear of trains—Piper (R-Berks), Hamilton (D-Beaver). Qualify high school graduates from other states to take competitive examinations for scholarships awarded by the public instruction department—Wall (R-Wayne).

Qualify for relief payments aged or disabled persons who are inmates of public institutions—Pomeroy (R-Phila.), Dougherty (D-Phila.), Kamyk (D-Allegheny), Haudenshield (R-Allegheny).

Require railway cars used for transportation of railroad employees to be equipped with tops and safety glass windshields—Cliff (D-Lawrence), Mahan (R-Butler). Provide a state reimbursement of 25 per cent of the cost of salaries for area technical schools established by joint school committees—Brennan (D-Bucks), Keller (R-Bucks).

Bednarik To Help Penn Grid Mentors

Bednarik, who won his football laurels as a Penn All-America and a star linebacker with the Philadelphia Eagles, is going to become a part-time coach at the University of Pennsylvania.

Athletic Director Jerry Ford announced yesterday Bednarik will coach the offensive centers and defensive linebackers. Vince McNalley, general manager of the National Football League Eagles, said Bednarik would continue to play for the team, coaching in his spare time.

Creamed ham is delicious spooned into the cavities of Hubbard-squash halves that have been baked. Sprinkled with parsley for flavor and color.

Bowery, The Stars and Stripes Forever. It was blossom time in America.

"But here and now our pretense must end, for long ago that New York changed its picture once more; and long ago our Nation took on a faster pace — an accelerated mode of living. Long ago the picture of transporting goods, and transporting people, changed as various modes came into being — a change that demands a realistic coordination and a sound policy if our way of life and our civilization are to be preserved and expanded. And it demands more. It demands a return to certain standards that our forefathers — our pioneers — followed; standards upon which this great Republic was built. Those standards should be borne before us always, as colors are carried before a regiment.

"In the impressively beautiful park which was once the bloody and tragic battleground of Gettysburg (memorable because it symbolizes the struggles and the sacrifices and the terrible hopes of people in a great moment of crisis), there is an unusual statue. It is the likeness of a very young soldier desperately clutching his regimental flag, defiantly facing the enemy.

"The story is a dramatic one. His regiment had fallen back and was preparing to make a stand in a near-by patch of woods when the captain noticed the color bearer had not retreated. He still stood there — alone — shaking his fist, waving his flag. The captain sent a runner to the boy with orders to bring the colors back to the regiment. But the boy sent word back: 'Bring the regiment back to the colors!'

"As I stood there before that statue, and the sun went down over the muzzle of a gun that has been a museum piece for nearly a century, I found myself repeating the courageous words of that boy — and I find myself repeating them again tonight: 'Bring the regiment back to the colors.' For it has occurred to me that despite our new and vaunted civilization we have retreated from certain standards. I find myself saying: 'Bring us back to those standards and those principles — the individual responsibility, the good work, the hard work, the spirit of fair play — bring us back to the great American heritage left to us by our forefathers.'

"To be sure, the fearful climax of Gettysburg compels the attention. But behind that crisis there had been generations of plain folk beforehand — working on farms, in shops and stores, and on railroads — people quite unaware that they were on the high road to destiny, but living and working in such a way that when destiny came along they could meet it without batting an eye. Our destiny — the destiny of our Nation, and the destiny of the transportation industry — lies in tomorrow; and we, too, must live and work in such a way that we can rise to it.

"The challenge we face in this new civilization is not to retreat from the standards of character and service which became our birthright when General Washington became President Washington. It is a challenge to the Nation, to all its citizens, to industry, to management and to labor; a challenge of the basic tenet of democracy — individual responsibility.

"And if we need to be re-dedicated to that challenge — re-dedicated to the principle of individual responsibility and to the courage of staying with our standards — we can find the symbol of that rededication in that solitary statue which stands on that battlefield where, as Mr. Lincoln remarked: 'The world can never forget what they did here.' We can find it in the courageous cry of a young soldier: "Bring the regiment back to colors."

LIZ IS EXPECTING
HOLLYWOOD (P)—Actress Elizabeth Taylor and producer Mike Todd expect their first child in late November, her studio announced. They were married last Feb. 2 in Acapulco, Mexico.

Ever serve fruit sherbet in ginger ale? Refreshing, and the teen-age crowd always enjoys the combination.

BLAMES UNION FOR INFLATION

PITTSBURGH (P)—Chairman Roger E. Blough of U.S. Steel Corp. said Tuesday in his annual report "the vast power of industry-wide labor unions in compelling annual wage increases far beyond increases in productivity is automatically compelling inflation."

"This is because, up and down the industrial production line, employment costs constitute directly or indirectly the vast bulk of all costs," Blough declared. He said "inflation is rapidly becoming automatic in America," adding:

"If the American people come to accept inflation as a way of life — however reluctantly or apathetically — it is inevitable that both individuals and business will come to compete in borrowing in order to buy now and pay off later in cheapened dollars."

Last year, Blough said, his company had record breaking sales but lower profits. He attributed the lower earnings principally to a five-week industry-wide strike by the United Steelworkers.

Sales in 1956 totalled $4,228,877, compared to $4,097,680,287 in 1955.

Net income last year was $348,098,916, equal to $6.01 per common share. This compared with $370, 099,353 or $6.44 per share in 1955.

Big steel reported its employment costs totalled $1,455,613,321 in 1956, compared to $1,415,011,634 in 1955. Pension and other employee benefits totalled $225,352,981 last year, an increase of $25,578,956 over the previous 12 months.

Seven Southern Assn. baseball players drove in 100 or more runs in 1956.

Boosts TV Fund
Up To $80,000

NEW YORK (P)—Robert Strom, 10, Bronx schoolboy, easily answered three scientific questions Tuesday night to run his TV quiz winnings up to $80,000 toward a possible $256,000.

The fifth-grader won $16,000 to add to the $64,000 he won last week on CBS-TV's "$64,000 Question."

He will return next week to try to boost the $16,000 to $32,000, and, if successful, will qualify to try the following week for his second $64,000.

A contestant can advance through four $64,000 rounds without losing any $64,000 block he has won along the way.
